INTRODUCTION TO WILSONS FROM NEW ENGLAND

Probably the first, and certainly the most prominent individual with the Wilson name to establish permanent residence in New England was the Rev. John Wilson who came in the spring of 1630 with Gov. Winthrop in the ARBELLA as the spiritual leader of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and served as the founding pastor of the First Church in Boston.

Among the thousands who followed between 1630 and 1650 in the Puritan Great Migration we can identify at least thirty persons named Wilson. James Savage in his Genealogical Dictionary [1860] lists over two hundred and fifty individuals with this name who resided here prior to 1700 and his compilation is far from complete. Some of these individuals did not marry, the families of others petered out within a few generations but many left a posterity which flourished and multiplied.

The descendants of these early settlers were augmented by the influx of immigrants of Scotch ancestry who came from northern Ireland. Five shiploads in 1715 were the forerunners of a massive migration, by the time of the Revolutionary war it has been estimated that more than one-sixth of the population was of Scotch-Irish origin. An early petition from Ireland requesting land on which to settle in New Hampshire shows that over four percent of those signing were named Wilson, an indication of the prominence of this name among these settlers.

The 1790 census of the New England states lists four hundred and forty families, containing over twenty-five hundred individuals with the Wilson name, the largest concentration being in New Hampshire where they accounted for one of every two hundred seventeen residents. Until recent times Wilson was usually listed among the ten names most frequently encountered in New England.

Using primary sources such as town vital records (VR), land records, gravestone inscriptions (GS), probate records, military records and census records we have, during the past thirty years, assembled a data base listing over forty thousand individuals named Wilson. Information from secondary sources such as published town histories, family genealogies and Bible records has also been used whenever it was found to be consistent with known facts, in many instances such secondary material is the only source available for later generations.

Wilsons From New England is conceived as a means to provide access to this data in the form of a series of volumes each of which will, insofar as is possible, trace the male line from immigrant ancestors who settled in New England during colonial times down to listings of their descendants in the 1850 census. Events which occurred during the years 1851 to 1900 are included when they come readily to hand, however only a nominal amount of time has been devoted to research in this period, consequently but a small fraction of the individuals who were born during those years are reported herein. Births after the close of the nineteenth century are not listed, such information is generally available either from family records or from official sources. Some of the volumes cover the descendants of a single progenitor while others, such as this, list the descendants of several unrelated immigrants who initially settled in the same geographical area.

Our format is designed to permit computer print-outs of individual lines from those families whose genealogy has not yet been published.

Although we have striven for accuracy, our priority has been to establish family structure rather than provide absolute proof of all relationships. Thus, in the absence of indications to the contrary, we have assumed that an individual married in a town was the one of the same name who was born there some twenty-odd years earlier and likewise that minors listed in the census were children of the adults with whom they were living even though in infrequent instances these assumptions may not be valid.

Especially in earlier times there were several variations in the way the family name was spelled. Although some of these variations persist to the present we have concluded that their use serves to cloud rather than clarify the overall picture and therefore have spelled the name as Wilson throughout. Possibly the final event leading to this conclusion was when, after carefully separating the residents of a town according to the number of L's in their name we found brothers with different spelling on their gravestones and a husband and wife with different spelling on the same stone.

Most people consulting this book will be searching for origins of either an individual named Wilson or of someone who married a Wilson. To facilitate such searches we have omitted from the index all individuals who did not have the Wilson surname. Those persons who are one generation removed from the Wilson name can be readily located by referencing their family name in the index to marriages.

The space thus saved has been used to expand the indexes both for individuals named Wilson and for those who married Wilsons. The Wilson index shows the year of birth, the principal place of residence and when known the year of death for each individual and includes all women who acquired the name by marriage. All persons with the same given name are listed chronologically by year of birth without regard to possible middle names or initials which may or may not be known to the searcher. The index to marriages, in addition to names shows the date and place of the marriage whenever these are known.

Our numbering system has been designed to be user friendly. Each person born with the Wilson name has been assigned a distinctive identification consisting of two numbers separated by a hyphen. The prefix represents the number of the generation in this country to which that person belongs starting with the immigrant ancestor as the first generation. The suffix shows the individual's sequential location within the generation. A letter is used to designate the volume of Wilsons From New England in which that individual's family is listed. The plus sign (+) is appended to designate those who head a family group, brides assume their husband's identity. When an individual is believed to belong to a listed family but proof of relationship is lacking he or she is listed in the appendix, in such listings a double asterisk () replaces the generation designation.

A compilation of this type is never completed, there are always elusive lines of descent which have been overlooked. Correspondence regarding corrections or additions or with material on other Wilson families for inclusion in future volumes is always welcome.

INTRODUCTION TO VOLUME "R"

Volume R is the second to be published in the series Wilsons From New England. It lists the descendants of five apparently unrelated settlers who when first noted were residing in Hartford county, Connecticut.

ROBERT (R01-100) who died at Farmington on 21 July 1655 was an early settler in Windsor whose descendants, for many generations, remained in Hartford and Litchfield counties.

DAVID (R01-400) died at Enfield 9 May 1811, aged seventy-five years. Most of his descendants removed to other areas, only a few remained in Connecticut.

PHINEAS (R01-600) a wealthy merchant died at Hartford on 22 May 1692 leaving a son, Nathaniel, who was involved in what has been termed the strangest and most incredible career in our colonial history.

ARCHIBALD (R01-700) died at Middletown 16 Jan. 1774 having come from Farmington about 1763. Many of his descendants settled in Whitestown, Oneida county, New York.

MICHAEL (R01-900) was in Simsbury by 1749 where he married and had at least three children. Some descendants settled in Phelps, Ontario county, New York.

These five families are listed separately but to facilitate reference their descendants have been grouped in a common index. The identity of members of each family can be established by keying on the first digit following the hyphen in the identification.

One should not assume that all persons named Wilson who resided in Hartford county and whose ancestry can be traced to a colonial immigrant of that name are listed herein. In later generations descendants of Gowen (C01-001), John (J01-001) and Jacob (V01-001) have been noted residing in this area.

Composition for this volume was done with an IBM PC computer using a Volkswriter VW3 word processing program and an Epson LQ800 printer.

ROBERT WILSON OF WINDSOR

In an area where extensive records of the early settlers have been preserved and many family genealogies have traced the descendants of these pioneers it is somewhat surprising that, except for fragmentary accounts in various town histories, no record has heretofore been compiled covering the descendants of ROBERT (R01-100) WILSON one of the early residents in the town of Windsor.

Windsor was settled in 1635 by a group of colonists who came with their pastor, the Rev. Mr. Wareham from Roxbury, Massachusetts. They were soon joined by a group which came directly from England and sailed up the Connecticut River to the head of navigation at Windsor. Nowhere in either group do we find mention of the name Wilson.

"Robert Wilson has granted from ye Plantation thirty acres of wood land." This undated notation, found on page 152 of the first volume of Windsor land records is the earliest mention we have found of this man. On 11 Jan. 1640 Robert exchanged this land for fourteen acres of more desirable land thus establishing that he came to Windsor within five years of its initial settlement. He sold his fourteen acres to James Ennochs on 7 July 1655.

Inasmuch as Robert had to be of age in 1640 to own land we can reasonably assume that he was born in England prior to 1619.

In these conveyances there is no mention of a dwelling house or other buildings. Construction of shelter against the harsh New England winters was of paramount importance to the early settlers, the failure of Robert to build upon his land indicates that he must have shared a residence with someone. This conclusion is validated by a conveyance dated 24 June 1647 by which William Thrall and Robert Wilson, "joint purchasers of the land bought of Simon Hoyt" by mutual agreement divided the land and the dwelling house "from the middle of the doors and chimnies" each to own one end of the building with the garden, the well and the wood lot to be owned in common. The land covered by this agreement, amounting to four score acres together with the dwelling house thereon standing was purchased by Thrall on 20 June 1646, the name of Robert Wilson did not appear at that time. This arrangement for divided ownership of the house continued until 28 June 1654 when Wilson, because of his move to Farmington, sold his entire interest to Thrall.

It is interesting to speculate as to why, at a time when timber to build cabins was readily available, Robert chose for the fifteen years he resided in Windsor to share accommodations rather than build upon his own land. Possibly he married a daughter of William Thrall, if so there is no proof of such a relationship, there is no record of the existence of a first wife for Robert and no children survived from such a marriage. William Thrall died at Windsor 3 Aug. 1679, ae. 73 years, his wife having died in 1676.

When Robert in 1654 sold his homestead rights in Windsor he had previously acquired considerable land in the nearby town of Farmington where the records note that in January 1653 he owned sixty-six acres of farmland in addition to the ten acres on which stood his dwelling house. It was at this point, with a young and apparently prosperous family that tragedy struck.

Early in July 1655 Robert made a trip to Windsor, probably leaving his wife and their infant children in Farmington. On 7 July 1655 he signed a deed conveying his wood lot in Windsor, his signature thereon was notarized at Windsor. While in Windsor he no doubt took the opportunity to visit relatives and friends. There is no way to know what they had to eat and drink on that hot midsummer day but his sister Ann (Wilson) Weller died on 10 July 1655 and less then two weeks later, on 21 July 1655, Robert's death was recorded at Farmington.

Only one document, an inventory taken 3 July 1656, remains in the probate file of Robert Wilson. (Records of the Probate Court of Hartford County, Connecticut, hereinafter "HPR", file 6124) It set the value of his estate at 173 pounds and 7 shillings, a marginal note states that John Wilson is now five years old and Samuel is now three years old.

Robert Wilson married, probably at Hartford, circa 1649 ELIZABETH STEBBING. She was much younger than Robert having been born at Hartford circa 1631, daughter of Dea. Edward and Frances (Tough)(Chester)(Smith) Stebbing. For a discussion of this ancestry see John I. Coddington, Family of Frances (Tough)(Chester)(Smith) Stebbing in The American Genealogist (hereinafter "TAG") Vol. 30 [October 1954] p. 203-4.

Elizabeth survived her husband and in 1658 married, as his second wife, THOMAS CADWELL of Hartford. She was living on 11 Feb. 1691/2 when Cadwell made his will in which he stated that his eldest son, Edward had received a good estate from his grand-father Stebbing, "in the right of my wife, his mother, who was the only child of said grandfather living when he deceased." Elizabeth and Thomas had ten (Cadwell) children; Mary 1659, Edward 1660, Thomas 1662, William 1665, Matthew 1668, Abigail 1670, Elizabeth 1672, Samuel 1675, Hannah 1677 and Mehitable in 1680.

Children of Robert and Elizabeth (Stebbing) Wilson.

2-101+ i. JOHN, born at Windsor about 1650, died at Hartford early in 1698.

2-102+ ii. SAMUEL, born at Farmington 24 June 1653, died at Windsor on 3 Aug. 1697.

Robert Wilson had kinfolk in Windsor but exact relationships are difficult to prove. An in-depth discussion of Robert's situation is given by George E. McCracken in Robert Wilson of Farmington, Connecticut (TAG, Vol. 52 [April 1976] p. 76)

R01-101 ANN WILSON born circa 1619 married RICHARD WELLER at Windsor (VR), (ch. rec.) on 17 Sept. 1640 and as previously noted, died there 10 July 1655. Robert and Ann were of close in age, shared a family name, resided in the same small community and died less than two weeks apart. Robert Wilson's father-in-law, Dea. Edward Stebbing, in his will bequeathed "to Richard Weller twenty shillings, having formerly delivered into his hand about thirty pounds for the benefit of his children." The name of Edward Stebbing is signed to the inventory which is the only document in the probate file of Robert Wilson, it is conceivable that his father-in-law was the executor for Robert's estate and these payments by Stebbing to the children of Richard Weller resulted from a bequest by their uncle, Robert Wilson. Richard and Ann (Wilson) Weller had six (Weller) children born at Windsor; Rebecca 1641, Sarah 1643, John 1645, Nathaniel 1648, Eleazer 1650 and lastly Thomas, born 1653. For discussions regarding this Weller family see John I. Coddington, Weller Notes, TAG, Vol. 26 [October 1950] p. 4 and Claude W. Barlow, Descendants of Richard Weller, TAG, Vol. 34 [April 1958] p. 4.

R01-102 ISABELLE WILSON born circa 1624, died at Windsor (VR) 15 July 1674. She married at Windsor (VR) 4 June 1645 WILLIAM PHELPS, Jr. who was baptized in England on 26 Dec. 1619, son of William and Elizabeth (-----) Phelps. Phelps came from England with his parents arriving in Massachusetts Bay 30 May 1630 aboard the MARY AND JOHN and removed from Dorchester to Windsor in 1635 with the Rev. Mr. Wareham's church. Isabelle and William had no children, at the time of her death the Windsor records noted "now since twenty-nine years and has had no child." After the death of his father, Samuel (R02-102) was raised by his aunt Isabelle. Phelps married as his second wife Sarah Pinney and again remained childless. He made his will in 1681 by which he gave all of his land to his brother, Timothy Phelps.

R01-103 ELIZABETH WILSON? born circa 1626. She married THOMAS NOWELL who died at Windsor in 1648. His will bequeathed "as a token of love and respect to my kinsman Robert Wilson, one steer and one cowe and unto Isabel Phelps my kinswoman, one cowe." He stipulated that if his wife Elizabeth should remarry she was to pay to Robert and Isabelle each ten pounds, after the death of his widow his house and lands were to go to Christopher Nowell of Wakefield, Yorkshire, England. Elizabeth (Wilson?) Nowell married second, as his second wife, Stephen Taylor who was born in England about 1618 and died at Windsor 1 Sept. 1688. Forty-six years after the death of Thomas Nowell the court, on 10 May 1694 granted to John Wilson and Samuel Wilson administration on his estate, "they being the next-of-kin to him in the country and no other impowered legally to look after the estate." It is reasonable to assume that the "kinship" resulted from a Nowell having married a Wilson, either Elizabeth as herein listed, or an earlier wife of Nowell was a Wilson, or possibly Robert had earlier married a woman named Nowell who had died leaving him childless.

End of first generation.

SECOND GENERATION

R02-101 Dea. JOHN WILSON, Robert, born about 1650, probably at Windsor, CT older of the two sons of Robert and Elizabeth (Stebbing) Wilson. He died at Hartford, CT (VR) 16 Jan. 1698.

He married LYDIA COLE, daughter of John and Anne (------) Cole of Hartford. No record of this marriage has been found but the relationship is proven by her father's will which was made at Hartford on 4 Aug. 1683 wherein he mentions his daughter Wilson. (HPR, file 1278)

Lydia (Cole) Wilson married second, at Hartford (VR) on 14 Sept. 1699, as his third wife, Capt. CALEB STANLEY who was born there in March 1642 and died there 5 May 1718, son of Timothy and Elizabeth (-----) Stanley. There were no children by this marriage. (Israel P. Warren, The Stanley Families of America [1887] p. 233) Lydia survived her second husband by many years and died in 1732. On 28 Feb. 1732/3 her son-in-law, Richard Seymour was appointed administrator on the estate of Lydia Stanley, late of Hartford, deceased. (HPR, file 5136)

John Wilson was raised by his maternal grandfather, Dea. Edward Stebbing of Hartford who developed a strong affection for the boy. John's houselot, situated on the highway which is now Front Street in Hartford, came to him from his grandfather. He was admitted freeman of Hartford in 1675, in 1684 he was executor of the will of Robert Morrice, a close friend and neighbor. In 1692 Dea. John Wilson, with three others was chosen by the controversial Nathaniel Wilson, son of Phineas (R01-600), deceased, to be his guardian.

We can find no clue as to the occupation of Dea. John Wilson. His grandfather Stebbing expressed the desire that John "be instructed in my trade by Caleb Stanley" who was the surveyor of Hartford but there is no record of John being active in this trade, several of his descendants became blacksmiths, possibly John was first of the line. He lived in what is now a busy commercial area, perhaps in those days it was still open farming land.

John was for many years a deacon in the Second Church in Hartford, he owned the covenant there on 28 Mar. 1677 and his wife Lydia was received into full communion on 6 Apr. 1679, their children were baptized there.

John made his will at Hartford on 25 May 1697, it was proven on 3 March 1697/8. He mentioned his wife Lydia who was to be sole executrix, his sons John and Stebbin who were both minors, and his daughters Mary and Hannah. (HPR, file 6118)

Children of Dea. John and Lydia (Cole) Wilson, all born at Hartford.

3-101 i. LYDIA, baptized 9 Oct. 1673. She apparently died young, she is not mentioned in her father's will.

3-102 ii. HANNAH, baptized 12 Mar. 1676. She married first, at Hartford (VR) on 21 Sept. 1698 THOMAS DAY who was born about 1678, died late in 1724, son of John and Sarah (Butler) Day. Children (Day) as given by George E. Day on page 90 of Descendants of Robert Day of Hartford [1848]; Thomas 1699, Hannah 1701, John 1704, Nathaniel 1705 and finally Mehitable. Hannah married as her second husband NATHANIEL DICKINSON son of Thomas and Hannah (Crow) Dickinson of Hartford.

3-103+ iii. JOHN, baptized 25 Apr. 1680, died at Hartford in Apr. 1712.

3-104 iv. STEBBIN, born circa 1684, died at Hartford (VR) 7 Apr. 1708. He died intestate, administration was offered to John Wilson as the next-of-kin, he declined to act and his brother-in-law Richard Seymour of Hartford, blacksmith was appointed. Heirs-at-law on 4 Apr. 1709 were listed as John Wilson, Hannah Day, wife of Thomas Day and Mary, wife of Richard Seymour, all of Hartford. (HPR, file 6127)

3-105 v. MARY, baptized 25 Mar. 1688, a widow living in Canaan, CT 1753 she is possibly the widow Seymour who was buried at Hartford on 31 Jan. 1766. She married at Hartford (VR) on 30 Oct. 1707 RICHARD SEYMOUR who was born at Hartford 11 Feb. 1676/7, died at Canaan about 1750, son of John and Mary (Watson) Seymour. No record of children. (Donald L. Jacobus, History of the Seymour Family [1939] p. 39)

R02-102 SAMUEL WILSON, Robert, born at Farmington, CT (VR) 24 June 1653, younger of the sons of Robert and Elizabeth (Stebbing) Wilson. His death on 3 Aug. 1697 is recorded at Windsor, CT.

He married at Windsor (VR) 1 May 1672 MARY GRIFFIN who was born there 1 Mar. 1651/2, daughter of Sgt. John and Anna (Bancroft) Griffin. Mary survived her husband and married second, as his second wife, ANTHONY HOSKINS, born at Dorchester, MA about 1632, died at Windsor 4 Jan. 1707, son of John and Ann (Fyler) Hoskins. (Henry R. Stiles, The History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut [1891], p. 404, hereinafter "STILES", all references are to volume 2 unless otherwise stated.) There were no children by this marriage. Mary (Griffin)(Wilson) Hoskins died at Windsor early in 1734/5. Her will, dated 14 July 1716 and proven on 4 Mar. 1734/5 names her five children; John Wilson, eldest son; Samuel Wilson; Mary Filley; Elizabeth Wilcoks and Abigail Alford. It also mentions "my grand-son Job, who has lived with me" who is to receive his bequest when he becomes twenty-one. (Mrs. Albert H. Chase, David Winchell of Suffield, Connecticut, TAG, Vol. 24 [Jan. 1948] p. 49) The grandson who was mentioned is further identified in a conveyance dated 3 July 1729 which reads in part "I Mary Hoskins, widow, of Windsor, alias Mary Wilson, formerly Mary Griffin, in consideration of ye love, good will, respect and affection that I have and do bear to my grandson, Job Wilson of said Windsor ye son of my daughter Abigail, ye wife of Benedict Alvord--" (Simsbury Land Records, 5:234)

Samuel was a babe in arms when his father died, he was only about five years old when his mother remarried and he was sent to live with his aunt, Isabelle (Wilson R01-102) and her husband William Phelps, Jr. Evidence of the warm affection he received from this childless couple is shown by a deed dated 30 Oct. 1676 whereby William Phelps conveyed to his kinsman, Samuel Wilson, by way of a free gift a parcel of land across from the Phelps dwelling house together with four acres of meadow land. In 1683 Samuel acknowledged a dividing fence to have been erected by himself and "his brother Griffin about the time of the Indian War when they kept the garrison at my uncle Phelps house." In 1686 Samuel Wilson and his wife Mary were admitted to membership in the First Church in Windsor.

Samuel Wilson of Windsor died intestate. His children were listed in his probate as Elizabeth Wilson, age 24 years; Mary Wilson, age 22 years; Abigail Wilson, age 13 years; Samuel Wilson, age 5 years and Mindwell Wilson age

1-1/2 years. Inexplicably John, the eldest son, was not listed although he later received his double share of the estate. On 7 Mar. 1700 Mary, relict of Samuel Wilson but then the wife of Anthony Hoskins, Sr. presented an administrators accounting which included an item of six pounds for "extraordinary expenses about a young child that died." This was the daughter Mindwell as is shown by the distribution of the assets to the heirs on 8 Apr. 1702 with the widow Mary receiving 88 pounds and the eldest son John receiving 88 pounds while Elizabeth, Mary, Abigail and Samuel each received 44 pounds. (HPR, file 6125)

Later relationships within this family are shown by a rather complicated conveyance date 6 Mar. 1712/3. "Thomas Marshall of Windsor has by way of exchange made over to our brother John Wilson of Windsor one third part of his lot known by the name of the five acre lot for six acres of upland which was set out to us, Elizabeth Wilcoxen, Mary Filley and Abigail Wilson from the estate of our honored father, Samuel Wilson, late of Windsor, deceased; and whereas our honored mother, Mary Hoskins has engaged to pay us the said Elizabeth, Mary and Abigail a valuable price for said six acres in consideration that our brother has made over to our mother that part of the house and homestead which he purchased of Mary Filley, now William Wilcoxen and Elizabeth his wife of Symsbury and John Filley and Mary his wife and Abigail Wilson, all of Windsor thereby sell to Thomas Marshall." This document was signed by Mary (X) Hoskins, William Wilcoxen, John Filley and Mary (X) Wilson. (Windsor Land Records, 3:166)

Children of Samuel and Mary (Griffin) Wilson, all born at Windsor.

3-106 i. ELIZABETH, born (VR) 24 Feb. 1673/4, died at Simsbury, CT 27 July 1746. Sometimes called ISABELLE and occasionally JEZABELL she is Elizabeth in both her father's probate and the record of her marriage in Simsbury (VR) on 18 Jan. 1699/1700 when "Elizabeth, daughter of Samuel Wilson of Windsor" married Sgt. WILLIAM WILCOXEN who was born at Windsor circa 1668, died 22 Mar. 1732/3, son of Lt. Samuel and Hannah (Rice) Wilcoxen. They had seven (Wilcoxen) children born at Simsbury; Elizabeth 1700, William 1702, Martha 1704, Azariah 1706, Amos, John and finally Daniel who was born in 1717.

3-107 ii. MARY, born (VR) 5 Aug. 1675, baptized 8 Aug. 1675. She married at Windsor (VR) on 9 Aug. 1707 JOHN FILLEY who was born there on 10 Feb. 1677, died 9 Dec. 1736, son of Samuel and Ann (Gillett) Filley. They had six (Filley) children born at Windsor; John 1708, John 1709, Joseph 1711, Amos 1713, David 1715 and Daniel born in 1719. (Stiles, p. 250) On page 794 he says there was a second Mary born 7 Aug. 1679 and baptized the next day, it is difficult to reconcile this with the fact that her age was given as 22 years in 1697 when her father died.

3-108 iii. THOMAS, born (VR) 18 July 1676, baptized 23 July 1676, died young.

3-109 iv. Child, born (VR) 17 Aug. 1677, probably died the same day.

3-110 v. SAMUEL, born (VR) 21 Nov. 1678, died 31 July 1689.

3-111 vii. ABIGAIL, born (VR) 2 Mar. 1683/4, died at Windsor (VR) 30 Apr. 1773 ae. 93 years. By Job Drake of Windsor she had a son JOB (R04-104) WILSON, later known as JOB DRAKE, whose birth was recorded at Windsor on 18 Jan. 1703/4 and who died at Windsor 9 Dec. 1789. An account of his posterity can be found starting on page 41 of Descendants of John Drake of Windsor, Connecticut [1933] by Frank B. Gay. Mary Hoskins in her will dated 14 July 1716 bequeathed five pounds to her grandson Job who lived with her. Abigail, shortly before her marriage deeded her land to her son Job. Finally, on 3 July 1729 Mary Hoskins, widow of Windsor, alias Mary Wilson, formerly Mary Griffin, deeded land in Simsbury to Job Drake, son of her daughter Abigail, now wife of Benedict Alford. Job Wilson, generally referred to when an adult as Mr. Job Drake married MARTHA MOORE, daughter of John and Martha (Farnsworth) Moore of Windsor. Abigail Wilson married at Windsor (VR) on 12 Jan. 1714/5 BENEDICT ALVORD, who was born there 27 Apr. 1688, son of Jeremy and Jane (Hoskins) Alvord. They had five (Alvord) children children born at Windsor; Benedict 1716, Abigail 1718, Alexander 1721, Jerusha 1723 and Azuba in 1727. (Stiles, p. 35)

3-112+viii. JOHN, born (VR) 24 May 1686, died at Windsor 10 Aug. 1774.

3-113+ ix. SAMUEL, born (VR) 31 July 1689, died 1760 in Dutchess Co., NY.

3-114 x. MINDWELL, born 1696, died before 7 Mar. 1700.

End of second generation.

THIRD GENERATION

R03-103 JOHN WILSON (John, Robert) born about 1680, baptized in Second Church, Hartford, CT 25 Apr. 1680, third of the five children and oldest son of Dea. John and Lydia (Cole) Wilson. He died at Hartford in April 1712 when he was about thirty-two years of age.

He married at Hartford (VR) 27 Nov. 1707 MARY GILBERT. Homer W. Brainard on page 74 of The Gilbert Family [1953] says she was born at Middletown, CT on 18 May 1680, daughter of Jonathan and Dorothy (Stow) Gilbert. It appears that Mary did not survive her husband.

John Wilson owned the covenant at the Second Church on 19 Sept. 1708. The only record of his name on the land records at Hartford is on 20 Apr. 1710 when he sold to Samuel Wells seven acres of land on the highway to Windsor, abutting land owned by Joseph Ashler, Dr. Thomas Hooker, Disbrow Spooner and Samuel Butler. (Hartford Land Records, 2:39)

John died intestate leaving an estate valued at 312 Pounds. Administration was granted on 5 May 1712 to his brothers-in-law, Thomas Day and Richard Seymour. Settlement was made on 7 Apr. 1713 when the administrators were directed to deliver the entire estate to John Haynes of Hartford in his capacity as guardian to Stebbin Wilson, only child of the deceased. (HPR, file 116)

Children of John and Mary (Gilbert) Wilson, all recorded at Hartford.

4-101+ i. STEBBIN, born 14 Sept. 1708, baptized 19 Sept. 1708, died at Hartford in 1759.

4-102 ii. MARY, born 25 Feb. 1709/10, baptized 26 Feb. 1709/10, died young.

4-103 iii. LYDIA, born 26 Jan. 1710/11, baptized 29 Jan. 1710/11, died soon.

4-104 JOB WILSON, born 18 Jan. 1703/4. (See R03-111)

R03-112 Dea. JOHN WILSON (Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT (VR) 24 May 1686, eighth of the ten children of Samuel and Mary (Griffin) Wilson. He died at Windsor (VR)(GS) 10 Aug. 1774, ae. 88 years, buried there with his wife in Palisado Cemetery.

He married at Windsor (VR) 16 June 1709 MARY MARSHALL, born there on 21 Feb. 1688/9, daughter of Dea. Thomas and Mary (Drake) Marshall. This ancestry is proven by a conveyance made on 9 Apr. 1713 whereby Dea. Thomas Marshall deeded land to his son-in-law, John Wilson. Further in his will made in 1754 Thomas Marshall left a bequest to his daughter, Mary Wilson. (HPR) The death of Mary, wife of Dea. John Wilson on 11 Feb. 1772 when she was in her 83rd year is recorded at Windsor, she is buried with her husband.

John and his brother Samuel each had rights to the common lands of Windsor, as these tracts were gradually divided into lots the brothers would sell those plots which were set-off to them. John was an active trader in land, purchasing and selling parcels in all parts of Windsor. He was one of the original proprietors of the town of Torrington but he never resided in that place. The proprietors records of Harwinton, CT show that John Wilson of Windsor in 1734 purchased a one-third part of a 131 acre tract of land in that town.

Shortly after the death of his wife Dea. John Wilson made his will which he dated 8 July 1772. He mentioned therein his sons Amos, John and Noah, each of whom received land in Torrington, his son Joel who received land on the east side of the river in Windsor and his son Phineas who received the home lot in Windsor. Also he left smaller bequests to his daughters Mary, wife of Jonathan Filley, Hannah, wife of Josiah Drake and Rachel, wife of John Cook. (HPR) (Stiles, p. 250) They had Filley children born at Windsor; Mary 1729, Jonathan 1732, Nathan 1738, Ann 1740/1, Margaret 1743 and lastly Keziah, born 1748.

Nathaniel and Rebecca (Barber) Drake. (Frank B. Gay, Descendants of John Drake of Windsor, Connecticut [1933], p. 54) They had seven (Drake) sons born at Windsor; Josiah 1737 born "while his mother was lying-in at her brother Wilson's house", Joel 1738/9, Reuben 1741, Levi 1743, Josiah 1747, Moses 1749 and Aaron 1751.

4-109+ v. JOEL, born 17 Apr. 1718, died at Wintonbury (now Bloomfield) CT 20 Sept. 1797.

4-110 vi. RACHEL, born 6 June 1720, died at Torrington (GS) 8 Apr. 1789 ae. 68 years. She married at Torrington (VR) 22 June 1741 Dea. JOHN COOK who was born at Windsor 4 June 1719, died there 8 Apr. 1779, son of Dea. John and Edee (-----) Cook. They had thirteen (Cook) children born at Torrington; Rachel 1742, John 1743, Eunice 1746, Frances 1747, Shubael 1749, Sarah 1750, Ede 1752, Uriah 1754, Lucy 1756, Hannah 1758, Elihu 1760, Elihu 1761 and lastly Mary who was born in 1764. (The Rev. Samuel Orcutt, History of Torrington, Connecticut [1878], hereinafter "ORCUTT", p. 678)

4-111+ vii. AMOS, born 31 Jan. 1725/6, died at Torrington 11 May 1816.

4-112+viii. PHINEAS, born 16 Mar. 1728, died at Windsor 25 Nov. 1804.

RO3-113 SAMUEL WILSON (Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 31 July 1689, ninth of the ten children of Samuel and Mary (Griffin) Wilson. At the time of his death in 1762 he was residing in The Oblong, a narrow strip of land extending along the border between New York and Connecticut which at that time were disputing its sivereignty.

He married at Windsor (VR) on 9 May 1723 JEMIMA LEWIS of East Haddam, CT who was born at Middletown, CT in February 1700, daughter of Thomas and Sarah (Guernsey) Lewis. (Lewisiana, the Lewis Newsletter [1893] Vol. 4, p. 43)

Samuel had a right in the common lands of Windsor and had lots laid out to him in the divisions of 1738 and 1740. By an act of the Connecticut legislature, Samuel Wilson on 11 May 1721 was appointed administrator on the estate of his deceased aunt, Ruth Griffin, a wealthy spinster of Simsbury. He was living in Windsor in 1742, possibly that area which later became Ellington, where he had purchased a farm of 95 acres, when he sold a part of the land he had inherited in Simsbury. In 1743 when he sold land he was termed "of Windsor" however his signature was notarized in Bolton, CT. No record has been found of his residence in Bolton.

He was living in Colchester, CT on 22 Apr. 1749 when he purchased a farm of 65 acres located in the Marlborough parish of that town. He was there in 1750 when he sold more of his land in Simsbury, in 1752 when he was administrator on the estate of his son Samuel and was last noted there on 29 Mar. 1754 when he sold his land in Colchester.

The only later record we have found of Samuel Wilson comes from his will dated 18 Oct. 1760 and proven at the Surrogates Court in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess Co., NY on 28 Nov. 1762. (File No. 8015) He named therein his daughters; Jemima, wife of Elijah Phelps, Keziah, wife of James Cleary and Sarah Haley. Also mentioned where his grandchildren; Caleb Wadhams, son of his daughter Keziah, also Mary Wilson and Esther Wilson, daughters of his deceased son Ebenezer, all being minors under the age of 18 years. Also mentioned, with no relationship stated was Elizabeth Daly, late of Sharon, now a resident of his house. James Cleary and Capt. Stephen Hopkins were named to be executors.

Children of Samuel and Jemima (Lewis) Wilson, births of all but the fifth and the eighth are recorded in Windsor.

4-113 i. JEMIMA, born 15 Feb. 1723/4. She married at Hebron, CT (VR) on 1 Aug. 1748 ELIJAH PHELPS who was born there 31 July 1724, son of Noah and Ann (Dyer) Phelps. (Stiles 2:571) According to her father's will Elijah Phelps sold to Samuel Wilson 60 acres of land on lot No. 30 in The Oblong, land which appears to have been located in the vicinity of what is now Millbrook, Dutchess Co., NY.

4-114 ii. KEZIAH, born 21 Sept. 1725. By an unidentified father she had a son CALEB WADHAMS born 14 Jan. 1754, died 18 May 1835 who was mentioned in his grandfather's will. An account of his descendants is given by Harriet W. Stevens starting on page 537 of Wadhams Genealogy [1913]. Keziah was the wife of JAMES CLEARY residing in Dutchess Co., NY in 1850 when her husband was named to be executor of her father's will.

4-115 iii. SAMUEL, born 14 Dec. 1727, died at Colchester, CT in 1752. On 6 Nov. 1762 Samuel Wilson of Colchester was appointed administrator on the estate of his son, Samuel Wilson, Jr., late of Colchester, deceased, intestate. Joseph Nelson of Colchester was surety. (East Haddam District Probate Court Records, file 3350)

4-116 iv. MARY, born 18 Feb. 1729/30, died at Hebron, CT 31 Aug. 1753. She married at Hebron on 20 Apr. 1752 NOAH OWEN who was born there 1 Oct. 1730, died 23 May 1753, son of Noah and Mary (Waters) Owen. (Ralph D. Owen, Descendants of Robert Owen of Windsor, Connecticut [1941] p. 44) Mary had a posthumous daughter, Mary Owen born 7 Aug. 1753.

4-117 v. DARIUS, "son of Samuel Wilson" was baptized at Hartford on 23 May 1731, probably died soon. We have no proof that he was the son of this Samuel but we know of no other Samuel Wilson residing in the Hartford area who could have been the parent.

4-118 vi. SARAH, born 9 Apr. 1732. She married ----- HALEY.

4-119+ vii. EBENEZER, born 28 Mar. 1734/5, died before 1760.

4-120 viii. LUKE, baptized 6 Nov. 1737, (Stiles, p. 794) not mentioned in his father's will.

End of third generation

R04-101 STEBBIN WILSON (John, John, Robert) born at Hartford, CT (VR) 14 Sept. 1708, baptized there in Second Church 19 Sept. 1708, only child of John and Mary (Gilbert) Wilson to survive its father. He died in Hartford in 1759.

He married in Hartford Second Church on 24 Dec. 1730 VIOLET TAYLOR who was born at Hartford 10 Sept. 1712, daughter of Stephen and Violet (Bigelow) Taylor. For a discussion of her ancestry see John I. Coddington, Stephen Taylor of Windsor, Connecticut in TAG, Vol. 37 [Oct. 1961] p. 197. This relationship is proven by a deed dated 14 Aug. 1745 whereby Stebbin Wilson and Violet Wilson, his wife, quitclaimed all interest in the real estate of "our honored father, Stephen Taylor, late of Hartford, deceased." (Hartford Land Records, 7:183) Violet survived her husband and died 10 Oct. 1776 in her 65th year, being buried at the expense of the town of Hartford.

On 4 Aug. 1724 Stebbin Wilson of Hartford, a minor sixteen years of age, chose his uncle, Richard Seymour of Hartford to be his guardian. On 20 Apr. 1747 Stebbin Wilson of Hartford was surety for Richard Seymour of Canaan, CT who was executor on the estate of Richard Blackbourn, a transient person, late of Canaan, deceased. Stebbin owned the covenant at the church in West Hartford on 21 May 1732, the same day that his daughter Mary was baptized there.

Through his mother Stebbin inherited a proprietor's interest in the common lands of Middletown. On 18 May 1734 Stebbin Wilson of Hartford, blacksmith, for 3 pounds and 5 shillings sold to "my uncle, Nathaniel Gilbert of Middletown" all his proprietors right and interest unto any common and undivided lands within the township of Middletown. (Middletown Land Records, 6:110)

Stebbin appears as a tragic figure, frequently termed a blacksmith he sold his shop when he was thirty years old and thereafter apparently supported his family be selling, one after another, various parcels of land which he had inherited. He died intestate and insolvent. Administration on his estate was granted to the widow Violet Wilson on 27 Apr. 1759 with surety posted by her brother Stephen Taylor. The number of creditors was large but the individual amounts were small, his taxes for the years 1755 through 1759 had not been paid at the time of his death.

He was either indolent, a drunkard or more likely, in poor health for a long period of time.

The death of Stebbin Wilson severs the strands connecting his branch of the family to their ancestors. His children were not named in his probate, and except for the daughter Mary proof of kinship is lacking, the information which follows is based upon probability and assumption. (See also R01-700)

Probable children of Stebbin and Violet (Taylor) Wilson, born at Hartford.

5-101 i. MARY, daughter of Stebbin, baptized at West Hartford on 21 May 1732.

5-102+ ii. JOHN, born circa 1735.

5-103 iii. VIOLET, born circa 1738. She married at Hartford (VR) on 21 Aug. 1766 JOSEPH (R05-120), born about 1738 at Winchester, CT thought to be a son of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson.

5-104+ iv. STEBBIN, born circa 1746, died at Rush, Monroe Co., NY on 20 Aug. 1798.

R04-106 Capt. JOHN WILSON (John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT (VR) on 7 Nov. 1711, second of the eight children of Dea. John and Mary (Marshall) Wilson. He died at Harwinton, CT on 11 Dec. 1799 (GS) ae. 87 years, buried there with his wife in Old Cemetery.

He married at Harwinton (VR) 18 May 1737 ABIGAIL STEPHENS, born at Windsor 30 Mar. 1718, daughter of John Stephens. (Stiles, p. 700) Abigail died at Harwinton (GS) 14 July 1777 ae. 59 years.

R. Manning Chipman, on page 26 of his History of Harwinton, Connecticut [1860] says that John Wilson was one of the first five settlers in Harwinton being in that town before the initial division and sale of lots took place in 1732. He was termed "of Harwinton" on 25 Nov. 1737 when his father, "for love, goodwill and affection" deeded to John a tract of land in Harwinton which had been purchased only three months previously from Benjamin Denslow. (Harwinton Land Records, 1:59 and 129)

John Wilson was commissioned to be lieutenant of the militia company at Harwinton in May of 1760. (Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut) One year later he was commissioned to be captain of the west company of militia at Harwinton. Capt. John Wilson from Harwinton was the delegate to the legislature in Hartford, serving almost continuously from 1764 through 1778. His public career is typical of that era, the path to political power started with a commission in the militia and led directly to the colonial legislature. A marker on his gravestone indicates that he served during the Revolutionary war, however even though he retained his title it should be realized that he was sixty-four years of age when that conflict began and his active role was, of necessity a limited one. "John Wilson, 1st" was listed as living alone for the 1790 census of Harwinton.

On 4 Oct. 1786 John conveyed to his sons Eli, Abner, Daniel and John "the whole of the right I have in a certain gristmill standing on Ledmine brook being the one half of said mill which I own in partnership with Lt. William Hayden." Later he deeded the remainder of his land to his sons who, in turn, gave their father a lifetime lease on all land he had conveyed to them. (Harwinton Land Records, 4:519 and 5:441)

John Wilson made his will at Harwinton on 14 Feb. 1797. In it he named his sons Daniel S. Wilson and Eli Wilson, both of Harwinton, to be executors. He left bequests to his sons Daniel S., Eli, John and Abner Wilson and to his daughter Abigail Scovill. Daniel Catlin of Harwinton was surety for the executors. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6531)

Children of Capt. John and Abigail (Stephens) Wilson, all recorded at Harwinton.

5-105 i. JOHN, born 15 Feb. 1738, baptized 19 Feb. 1738, died at Harwinton (VR) 27 Sept. 1757.

5-106+ ii. ELI, born 30 Nov. 1740, died at Harwinton (VR) 21 July 1800.

5-107+ iii. ABNER, born 5 July 1743.

5-108 iv. DANIEL, born 11 Oct. 1747, died young.

5-109 v. ABIGAIL, born 29 Mar. 1753. She married at Harwinton (VR) 20 Oct. 1771 JOSEPH SCOVILL, born there 21 July 1751, died in July 1833, son of Ezekiel and Mindwell (Barber) Scovill. (Orcutt, p. 761) They had six (Scovill) children listed by Charles R. Eastman in Scovill Family Records [1910] Vol. 3, p. 6, all born in Harwinton; Abigail 1772, Joseph 1774, John 1777, Mary 1779, Mindwell 1781 and Champion born in 1784.

5-110+ vi. DANIEL STEPHENS born 2 Jan. 1757, died at Richland, MI 25 May 1834.

5-111+ vii. JOHN, born 26 Mar. 1760, died at Camden, NY 1 Dec. 1839.

R04-108 Capt. NOAH WILSON, (John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT (VR) 12 Feb. 1715 fourth of the eight children of Dea. John and Mary (Marshall) Wilson. He died at Torrington, CT on 9 Mar. 1796 ae. 79 years.

He married at Windsor on 4 Feb. 1740/1 ANN COOK who was born there 30 Oct. 1719, daughter of William and Edie (Drake) Cook. (Stiles, p. 163) This relationship is proven by a deed dated 23 Sept. 1780 whereby Amos Filley and Edee his wife, both of Winchester, CT and Noah Wilson and Ann his wife, both of Torrington, divided the lands in Windsor, Wintonbury and Torrington formerly belonging to "our honored father" Dea. William Cook, late of Windsor, deceased, of which said Edee and Ann were the sole heirs. (Windsor Land Records, 16:48) Ann "consort of Capt. Noah Wilson" died at Torrington (GS) on 14 Apr. 1798 ae. 78 years, she is buried with her husband.

Orcutt, on page 619 gives an account of Capt. Noah Wilson, relating that he received from his father about 50 acres of first division land and his wife a similar amount, probably more afterwards. He and his wife joined the Torrington church in the spring 1742, about two years after Dea. John Cook, they were probably the first to settle between Dea. Cooks and the pine timber, now Wolcottville. His brother Amos probably lived with him for ten years or more before marriage. Amos bought the mill privileges, but soon after Noah took a one fourth-interest, Amos retained the same and others took the rest.

Noah seems to have attended more to his farm and the farm work and to buying land and as his sons matured they too purchased land, almost everywhere in the town but specially in Mast swamp where his daughter, with her husband Joseph Taylor also bought and sold much land. Noah did not speculate in land, he invested in it and sold only infrequently, he was always anxious to add to his holdings.

"Noah Wilson was a true blue Puritan in principles and character; steady on the same tract; so much so that it almost takes ones breath to think of it. True to the Pilgrims' idea of the Bible, so that any one in the town knew just what principles he held in religion, and what he would do when those principles should be put to the test. He was so sedate, so regular in his doings, so strict in religious matters that the youngsters called him 'His Majesty.' Under such circumstances it may easily be seen how afflictive it was to him when his son Abijah became a Methodist, one of the first Methodists in the state, probably about 1776 or 1777. But the subsequent devoted Christian life of Abijah and his noted good wife somewhat modified the old gentleman's opinion of the Methodists and their doctrines."

He was probably the first military captain in the town, appointed by the legislature on 12 May 1757 and retaining his position until shortly before the Revolution when his brother Amos was elected to replace him. He was representative from the town to the state legislature from 1766 through 1770 and was a selectman in Torrington in 1778. He is listed in the 1790 census of Litchfield county heading a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 and five females.

His will, made at Torrington 18 June 1791 and proven on 6 Apr. 1796 mentions his wife Ann, his sons Noah, Jr. the oldest, Abijah second son, and his daughters Ann Taylor and Jerusha Brooker. Also mentioned were two grandchildren, William Wilson and Huldah Wilson, children of his deceased son William. Noah Wilson and Abijah Wilson were named executors with Joseph Taylor surety, all of Torrington. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6536)

Ann Wilson, widow of Noah made her will at Torrington on 15 Nov. 1796. She named her sons Noah and Abijah to be executors and left bequests to her two sons, to her daughter Anna, wife of Joseph Taylor and her daughter Jerusha, wife of John Brooker as well as to her grandchildren, by a deceased son William, William and Hannah Wilson. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6518)

Children of Capt. Noah and Ann (Cook) Wilson, the first two probably born at Windsor but all births are recorded at Torrington.

5-112 i. ANN, born 6 Apr. 1741, baptized at Windsor "in extremis" on 7 Apr. 1741. She died one week later.

5-113+ ii. NOAH, born 13 Sept. 1742, baptized at Windsor 19 Sept. 1742 "may it live".

5-114 iii. EDITH, born 4 Jan. 1744/5, baptized 6 Jan. 1744/5, died at Torrington (VR) 11 Apr. 1746. The church records call her Abigail.

5-115+ iv. ABIJAH, born 18 Dec. 1746, baptized 5 Jan. 1746/7, died at Winsted, CT 24 Mar. 1833.

5-116 v. ABIEL, born 16 Dec. 1748, baptized 8 Jan. 1748/9, died at Torrington (VR) 4 Oct. 1749, "son of Noah Wilson".

5-117 vi. ANN, born 28 Oct. 1751, baptized 3 Nov. 1751, died in 1838 ae. 87 years. By an unknown father she had children EDITH (R06-175) WILSON born 1 Jan. 1768, baptized 12 Feb. 1768 and died 13 Feb. 1768. Also CLEMENIA

(R06-176) WILSON born 17 Oct. 1770, baptized 28 July 1771 the same date that Ann and her daughter were admitted to the church. Ann married at Torrington (VR) on 31 Aug. 1775 JOSEPH TAYLOR who was born at Litchfield CT 29 Nov. 1753, died 1802, son of Ebenezer and Zerviah (Culver) Taylor. (Orcutt, p. 769) They had six (Taylor) children born at Torrington; Sylvia 1778, Roxy 1779, Jerusha 1782, Uri 1786, Abiel 1788 and Laura in 1792. A detailed biography of Joseph Taylor, his wife Ann and their son Uri is given by Orcutt, pp. 608-612.

5-118+ vii. WILLIAM, born 14 Sept. 1754, baptized 15 Sept. 1754, died at Torrington on 19 Sept. 1786.

5-119 viii. JERUSHA, born 16 Aug. 1758. She married at Torrington (VR) 18 Feb. 1783 JOHN BROOKER who was born at Branford, CT on 29 May 1759, son of Abraham and Tamar (Murray) Brooker. They had six (Brooker) children born at Torrington; Edee 1783, Warren 1786, Lucy 1789, Riley 1791, Sally 1793 and lastly John. (Orcutt, p. 659)

R04-109 JOEL WILSON (John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT (VR) on 17 Apr. 1718, fifth of the eight children of Dea. John and Mary (Marshall) Wilson. Joel died 20 Sept. 1797 ae. 80 years. (Wintonbury Parish Church Records)

There is no record of his marriage to ABIGAIL -----, probably the widow A. Wilson whose death in December 1815 at age 95 years is recorded in the First Church, Windsor. Several sources give her name as ABIGAIL LOOMIS but we find nothing to verify this name. A review of Descendants of Joseph Loomis in America [1908] by Elisha S. Loomis indicates that the only person listed therein who qualifies for this relationship is Abigail Loomis, born at Windsor 8 Apr. 1708, daughter of Joseph and Abigail (Gillette) (Birge) Loomis. She was living unmarried when her father made his will on 14 July 1733. (HPR, file 3440)

Joel resided in the Wintonbury parish of Windsor, the area which is now the town on Bloomfield. Most of our information on him and his family comes from the Wintonbury church records, other sources have but little mention of his name. He purchased 90 acres of land near the Wintonbury meetinghouse on 3 Feb. 1746/7 and from time to time he added to his holdings. In 1752 he received a small plot in the distribution of common lands of Windsor. He is listed in the 1790 census of Windsor heading a household comprised of himself and two females.

Children of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson, all but the first two births recorded at Windsor. Six of these sons served during the Revolutionary war.

5-120+ i. Probably JOSEPH, born about 1738, died at Windsor 28 Sept. 1801.

5-121 ii. ABIGAIL, born about 1743, baptized 8 Jan. 1743/4. Abigail Wilson, daughter of Joel died at Wintonbury (GS) 8 Dec. 1770 ae. 27 yrs.

5-122+ iii. JOEL, born 1 May 1746, died at Windsor 12 May 1832.

5-126 vii. JOHN, born 3 October 1757, baptized 16 October 1757. On 27 Aug. 1776 he enlisted to serve in the Revolutionary war under Capt. Fitch Bissell in Col. Jedidiah Huntington's regiment. Less than two months later he was dead, (GS) a casualty at the Battle of Flatbush on 19 Oct. 1776.

5-127+viii. JOAB, born 22 Dec. 1761, baptized 3 Jan. 1762, died at Granby, CT on 28 May 1842.

R04-111 Capt. AMOS WILSON (John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT (VR) 13 Jan. 1725/6, seventh of the eight children of Dea. John and Mary (Marshall) Wilson. He is buried at Torrington, CT where he died (GS) 11 May 1816 ae. 92 years.

His first marriage was at Torrington (VR) on 26 Oct. 1752 to ZERVIAH GRANT who was born at Windsor 13 Nov. 1731, daughter of William and Sarah (Moore) Grant. This relationship is proven by a deed dated 19 Apr. 1802 whereby Roger Wilson, Rozel Wilson, Ruth, wife of Isaiah Tuttle, all of Torrington and Rhoda, wife of Theodore Smith of Winchester quitclaimed to Matthew Grant all of their right, title and interest in the house of their late grandfather, Mr. William Grant, which descended to them from their late mother Zerviah Wilson who was a daughter of William Grant. Zerviah died at Torrington (VR) 3 May 1776.

Capt. Amos Wilson married second, at Torrington (VR) on 19 Aug. 1777 DAMARIS BAILEY who died there (VR)(GS) 22 Jan. 1792 ae. 48 years. Little has been found regarding the origin of this woman, she may have been a widow and the mother of the Daniel Bailey who died at Torrington 17 Feb. 1784 ae. 17 years.

His third wife was a widow, HANNAH (HILLS) LOOMIS who he married at Torrington, (Ch.Rec.)(VR) on 20 Mar. 1793. She was born at Suffield, CT on 5 Oct. 1724 daughter of Benoni and Hannah (Strong) Hills and widow of Aaron Loomis, Jr. of Torrington. (John Boyd, Annals and Family Records of Winchester, Connecticut [1873], hereinafter "BOYD", p. 44) Hannah died (GS) 28 Mar. 1812 ae. 87 years and is buried with her second husband.

Orcutt, starting on page 620 gives a biography of Amos Wilson stating that he came to Torrington in 1750 when he was 25 years of age and settled on a five acre farm given to him by his father which was located near the pine timber swamp in the section later known as Wolcottville. The west branch of the Waterbury river adjoined this land and less than a year later young Amos purchased from the proprietors of Torrington the mill privileges at that location. He formed a stock company in which he and his brother Noah each retained a one-quarter interest and sold the remainder to raise the capital with which they soon built a sawmill. At different times the company bought various portions of the pine timberland and Noah and Amos bought for their own accounts lot after lot until a considerable part of the pine timber was under their control. In addition to his farm and mill Amos managed to operate a small store, probably located in his dwelling house, where he sold such items as tea, sugar, indigo, silks, buttons and other items which were not raised in the town.

Raised in the religious atmosphere and in the town which in a later generation was to produce the fanatical anti-slavery crusader John Brown, it is not surprising that both Amos and his brother Noah were known for their strong religious convictions. Amos joined the Torrington church in 1752. Rev. Orcutt notes that he was a man of considerable influence in the ecclesiastical society and in the church at the time the second meetinghouse was built. He furnished material for that structure nearly two years before it was opened for services and did much to secure its final completion.

Amos was also active in civic affairs holding many minor town offices, serving four terms as selectman and representing the town in the state legislature for three terms.

In 1767 he was commissioned ensign in the Torrington militia company. (Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut) He was made lieutenant in 1769 and captain in 1771. During the Revolutionary war his company went on active duty but Amos was taken ill and soon returned home. His service in Col. Fisher Gay's regiment of Wadsworth's brigade of Connecticut militia, from June to 25 Dec. 1776 is listed on page 395 of Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848.

Amos Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Torrington heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females.

His will, dated at Torrington on 22 Jan. 1795 was probated more than twenty years later on 26 Aug. 1816. In it he mentioned his wife Hannah, his oldest son Roger, his son Roswell, his youngest son Amos, his daughter Ruth who was wife of Isaiah Tuttle and his youngest daughter, Rhoda Wilson. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6516)

5-132 v. ROSWELL, born 14 May 1765, baptized 19 May 1765, died at Torrington (GS) on 27 May 1828, ae 63 years. He married RUTH SIMONS, daughter of Samuel Simons. They had no children. We find no record for this marriage, the relationship is proven by the probate of Ruth Wilson who died intestate on 10

Oct. 1834 ae. 65 years (GS), it gave administration to her brother Samuel Simons, Jr. of Colebrook, CT, heirs-at-law were her siblings. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6538) His military title of Captain appears on his gravestone, it must have been earned in the militia subsequent to the War of 1812 when he served from 2 Aug. to 16 Sept. 1813 as private under Capt. Luther Hadley. (Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848, p. 138) Roswell, also called "Rozel" speculated heavily in real estate, he left a large estate, his will made at Torrington 22 Apr. 1826 mentions his wife Ruth, his sister Rhoda the wife of Theodore Smith and the six children of his brother Amos, viz; Waite, Harmon, Harriet (Thrall), Lois, Martha and Mary. Bequests were also made to Dorcas Simons and Experience Birge. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6537)

In 1817 when Rhoda sold land received from her father's estate they were residing in Tolland, MA. They had a son Theodore Smith, Jr. born about 1802.

He married at Windsor (VR) on 21 Nov. 1750 MARY PALMER who was born there 10 Sept. 1728, daughter of John and Deborah (Filley) Palmer. (Stiles, p. 549) Mary died at Windsor (GS) 21 Sept. 1811, ae. 86 years and is buried with her husband.

On 12 May 1750 Dea. John Wilson "for the love, goodwill and affection which he bore for his son Phineas Wilson" deeded to him several pieces of land in Windsor including one-half of his dwelling house. In turn Phineas, for the same consideration on 3 Sept. 1781 conveyed to each of his sons, Phineas, Jr. and Eli, a one-third part of his lands in Windsor. Windsor Land Records, 9:68 and 17:135)

In his later years Phineas was active in town affairs. There are several conveyances whereby Phineas acted as agent for the town in the transfer of land, in at least one instance he sold town lands to his own sons. (Windsor Land Records, 19:96) The 1790 census of Windsor lists Phineas heading a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and two females.

The will of Phineas Wilson was probated at Windsor on 22 Dec. 1804. It mentioned his wife Mary, his sons Phineas and Eli and his daughters Mary who was wife of Joseph Taintor and Ruth, wife of Timothy Phelps. (HPR) On 10 May 1805 the widow Mary, again for love, etc., deeded land in Barkhamsted, CT to her daughters Mary and Ruth. 5-139 i. MARY, born circa 1757.

End of fourth generation.

FIFTH GENERATION

R05-102 JOHN WILSON (Stebbin, John, John, Robert) born at Hartford, CT circa 1734, thought to be the second of the four known children of Stebbin and Violet (Taylor) Wilson. He died before June 1817.

He married, probably at Hartford, circa 1756 DEBORAH ——. The church records at West Hartland, CT show that Deborah, widow of John Wilson died there 3 June 1817 ae. 78 years.

John and his descendants take their place in this family with flawed credentials. There is no record of his birth, of his marriage or of his death, nor is there a record of the birth of any of his children. Specific proof regarding his parentage is lacking yet the land records and the church records outline a broad picture of his life leaving us to fill in the details as best we may.

The first notice we find of this John Wilson is at Torrington, CT where on 2 Oct. 1768 Huldah, daughter of John Wilson was baptized. As John is thought to have been about 33 years of age at that time he may have had older children of whom we have no knowledge.

On 5 Feb. 1774 John Wilson and his wife were admitted to membership in the Stepney Parish Congregational Church in Rocky Hill, CT having transferred there from the First Church at Hartford. The following day their daughter Lucinda was baptized there.

Stebbin (R05-104) on 7 Oct. 1775 sold for the bargain price of four pounds to John Wilson and Deborah his wife, both of Hartford, the small dwelling house in which they then resided. (Hartford Land Records 15:262) The deed covering this conveyance is quite brief, it does not properly locate the land, it does not set forth the boundaries of the lot nor does it give the area of the land, all details that a competent attorney would not overlook. It is our opinion that this document was drawn merely as a memorandum of a transaction between brothers.

John Wilson and Deborah his wife, then residing in Sandisfield, MA on 5 Sept. 1783 sold to Josiah Bigelow twelve acres of land on the east side of the Connecticut River in Hartford, adjoining the Bolton line, on the Glastonbury line and on the Hebron line. (Hartford Land Records 16:136) This plot was apparently located in the extreme southeast corner of what is now Manchester, CT.

Like his father John followed the trade of blacksmith as is shown by a conveyance dated 17 Feb. 1784 whereby John Wilson of Sandisfield purchased a dwelling house and blacksmith shop in Barkhamsted, CT. (Barkhamsted Land Records 1:126)

On 4 Oct. 1784 John Wilson of Barkhamsted for 48 pounds sold to "his son, John Wilson, Jr. of Barkhamsted" twenty acres of land including the dwelling house wherein he lately lived and the blacksmith shop in which he had lately worked. This constitutes the only reference we have found to John Wilson, Jr. It seems that he was the John Wilson who died at Barkhamsted about 1803 and that John, Sr. survived inasmuch as references to Deborah Wilson, wife of John are found repeatedly subsequent to that date. We can only speculate as to which of the Barkhamsted land transactions apply to the father and which to the son, the conveyances were not signed by the spouse and they do not differentiate between the two men.

The records of the First Congregational church in Barkhamsted show that on 19 Mar. 1787 Delight, daughter of John Wilson was married there and on 8 Apr. 1797 Deborah, wife of John Wilson was admitted to the church. On 16 Nov. 1788 Deborah and Frederick, children of John Wilson were baptized there. On 25 Apr. 1787 John Wilson of Barkhamsted quitclaimed to Elijah Barnet of Hartford all right title and interest he had in land located in East Hartford, wherever situated and however bounded. (Hartford Land Records 17:479)

John is listed in the 1790 census of Litchfield county heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and three females. On 6 Apr. 1795 John Wilson of Barkhamsted purchased from the proprietors of the town twenty acres of land along the boundary with Hartland. Two months later he leased this land, together with the small dwelling house thereon to Huldah Wilson, Ezekiel Wilson and Lucinda Wilson. (Barkhamsted Land Records 4:581) Although family relationships are not mentioned in this lease it is believed that those mentioned were children of John. Finally, on 8 Dec. 1798 John sold this parcel to his neighbor, Ephraim Tiffany.

John was still living in Barkhamsted on 7 Sept. 1802 when he purchased a one-half interest in thirty acres of land just across the town line in Hartland. He was of Hartland on 19 Oct. 1804 when "for divers good causes" he quitclaimed to "my son, Frederick Wilson and my daughter, Deborah Wilson" fifteen acres of land with the dwelling house thereon, reserving lifetime occupancy for John and his wife. (Hartland Land Records 6:25)

The church records at West Hartland show that on 29 June 1804 Deborah, wife of John Wilson was admitted to communion from the church at Barkhamsted. In 1806 she was dismissed from West Hartland to the church in Pittsfield, MA, the records there show she was received into that church on 4 May 1806, she was listed with the members on 9 Sept. 1809 and on 13 Jan. 1811 she was dismissed to the church in Hartland, CT.

Probable children of John and Deborah (-----) Wilson.

6-101 i. JOHN, born circa 1758. He is probably the John Wilson of Barkhamsted who in 1785 sold to his neighbor Aaron Allyn "a yoke of staggs, one being red-faced and the other black in color, four years old this spring." (Barkhamsted Land Records 1:23)

6-102 ii. FAIRVANE (Frances) born circa 1762, died 6 Apr. 1792. We use the name from the Hartland church records stating that on 28 Nov. 1782 she married RUSSELL BORDEN, both of Hartland. He was born at East Haddam, CT 10 May 1761, son of John and Mary (Russell) Borden. Children of John and Frances Borden recorded at Hartland; a stillborn child in 1792 and Lucy and Philo baptized in 1793.

6-103 iii. Probably THOMAS born circa 1763. Unverified information from the records of a descendant indicates that the second of the four sons in this family was named Thomas.

6-104 iv. DELIGHT, born circa 1766. Delight, daughter of John Wilson married at Barkhamsted (Ch.Rec.) 19 Mar. 1787 NATHANIEL MARSH who was born 28 Jan. 1746 and died 29 Mar. 1795. She married second CALEB LYMAN who was born at Torrington in 1747, died there 1810, son of Ebenezer and Sarah (-----) Lyman. They had a daughter, Hannah Lyman born 1802. (Lyman Coleman, Genealogy of the Lyman Family [1895] p. 208)

6-105 v. HULDAH, baptized at Torrington 2 Oct. 1768 "daughter of John Wilson". She is probably the Huldah Wilson who married AMBROSE MARSH born at Litchfield, CT circa 1760, son of Ambrose and Elizabeth (Taylor) Marsh. They had a daughter, Huldah Marsh. (Dwight Marsh, Genealogy of John Marsh of Hartford, Connecticut [1895] p. 47)

6-106+ vi. EZEKIEL, born 15 July 1773 at Hartford, died at Zanesville, Muskingum Co., Ohio in 1829.

6-107 vii. LUCINDA, baptized at Rocky Hill on 6 Feb. 1774, died soon unless a date has been incorrectly recorded and she is identical with the next child.

6-108 viii. LUCINDA, born 6 Jan. 1776, died 23 Mar. 1861. She married at Hartland (VR) on 18 Sept. 1800 OLIVER BUSHNELL who was born there on 23 Nov. 1773, died 5 Oct. 1847, son of Martin and Lucy (Bates) Bushnell. They had seven (Bushnell) children born at Hartland; Melissa 1801, Marilla 1803, Oliver Wells 1805, Lucinda 1807, Amanda 1812, Huldah 1814 and lastly Juliana. (George E. Bushnell, Bushnell Family Genealogy, [1945] p. 175) On 2 Sept. 1802 Oliver Bushnell and Lucinda his wife together with Deborah Wilson, all being of Barkhamsted, "for divers good causes" quit-claimed to Aaron Allyn all right, title and interest in about 15 acres of land including the dwelling house where John Wilson now lives. (Barkhamsted Land Records 6:493)

6-109 ix. DEBORAH, baptized at Barkhamsted 16 Nov. 1788, died in Livingston Co., NY in 1842. She married at Pittsfield, MA in July 1806 ABNER GOODRICH son of Moses. They had seven (Goodrich) children born in New York; Harry, Charles, Abner, Caroline, Adaline, Almira and Melissa. (John and William Goodrich, The Goodrich Family in America [1889] p. 377)

6-110+ x. FREDERICK, baptized at Barkhamsted on 16 Nov. 1788. He died at Hartland on 4 Sept. 1836.

R05-104 STEBBIN WILSON (Stebbin, John, John, Robert) born at Hartford, CT circa 1746, thought to be the youngest of the four known children of Stebbin and Violet (Taylor) Wilson. He is said to have died at Rush, Monroe Co., NY on 20 Aug. 1798.

He married first, probably at Hartford MARGARET SMITH, daughter of Elisha and Ruth (Seymour) Smith. Her ancestry is proven by a conveyance dated 21 May 1771 whereby Stebbin and Margaret Wilson sold land "originally laid out to Elisha Smith, late of Hartford, deceased, father of said Margaret and distributed to her as her portion of his estate." (Hartford Land Records 13:236) Margaret died at Hartford 25 May 1778 ae. 28 years.

Stebbin married for his second wife MARY CATLIN who was born at Rocky Hill, CT (VR) on 5 Dec. 1750, daughter of Ebenezer and Mary (Holtum) Catlin. Again this relationship is established by a conveyance, this one dated 12 Nov. 1785 whereby Stebbin Wilson and Mary his wife sold land "formerly belonging to Ebenezer Catlin, late of Hartford, deceased, which was distributed to his daughter Mary." (Hartford Land Records 16:275) Stebbin and Mary were listed as heirs in the probate of Ebenezer Catlin.

Stebbin is the only Wilson listed in the 1790 census of Hartford, he headed a household comprised of himself, two males under 16 years of age and four females.

Stebbin was not financially successful, the Hartford land records detail a dreary saga of sales, mortgages and finally judgements against him as he attempted to support his family by selling the real estate he and his two wives had inherited. In 1787 he filed as a bankrupt, his petition to the court stated that he was a seafaring man who, because of losses at sea, was unable to pay his debts. (Connecticut Archives 13:101) The last transaction on record is dated 16 May 1791 when he sold his last parcel, the homestead, and paid off the mortgage thereon.

Charlotte H. Goldthwaite, on page 344 of her Boardman Genealogy [1895] says that Stebbin and Mary (Catlin) Wilson had six children, that they removed from Hartford in 1791 and settled at Whitestown, Oneida Co., NY but after three years they went to Rush where he died. See also Archibald, R01-700.

Children of Stebbin Wilson by his first wife, Margaret (Smith).

6-111 i. JOHN, born circa 1777, died an infant on 29 Sept. 1778.

6-112 ii. MARGARET, born circa 1778, baptized at Farmington, CT 28 Feb. 1779.

Children of Stebbin and Mary (Catlin) Wilson.

6-113 iii. Child.

6-114 iv. Child.

6-115 v. NANCY, born 8 June 1786. She married ----- RUSSELL and had a son, Allen Russell born in 1826.

6-116 vi. Child.

6-117 vii. Child.

6-118 viii. Child.

R05-106 Lt. ELI WILSON (John, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Harwinton, CT (VR) 30 Nov. 1740, second of the seven children of Capt. John and Abigail (Stephens) Wilson. He died at Harwinton (GS) 21 July 1800 ae. 59 years, his gravestone there in the Old Cemetery has a Revolutionary war marker.

He married at Harwinton (VR) on 15 Apr. 1762 MINDWELL SCOVILL who was born there 26 Sept. 1742, daughter of Ezekiel and Mindwell (Barber) Scovill and sister of Joseph Scovill who married Eli's sister Abigail. (Charles R. Eastman, Scoville Family Records [1910] Vol. 3, p. 5) Mindwell survived her husband by twenty years, and died (GS) on 7 Sept. 1820 ae. 79 years, buried with him.

The first record we have found of Eli Wilson in the land records comes on 16 Aug. 1764 when his father gave him 25 acres of land with the buildings thereon standing located in the westerly part of Harwinton. (Harwinton Land Records 2:127) He became an active dealer in land buying and selling at frequent intervals, sometimes for his own account but often in partnership with his brother Abner. They also acquired substantial interests in two mills, one on the Waterbury river and the other situated on Lead Mine brook about one-quarter of a mile west of the Harwinton meeting house.

Although there is no Eli Wilson listed in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 his war service is well documented. He was commissioned to be lieutenant in the Fourth company, Seventeenth regiment, Connecticut militia in August 1777. (Public Records of Connecticut) Further his brother John, in applying for a pension (Revolutionary War Pension Application S17296) stated that late in September 1777 he had volunteered to serve in the company of Capt. Abner Wilson and had marched to Stillwater where he took part in the capture of Gen. Burgoyne's army and that the lieutenant of the company was his brother, Eli Wilson.

Eli Wilson served frequently as selectman at Harwinton between the years 1788 and 1798. He represented the town in the General Assembly in 1788 and again in 1789. The 1790 census shows him in Harwinton heading a household comprised of four males over 16 years of age, four males under 16 years and five females.

In July of 1800, shortly before his death Eli conveyed his land in Harwinton to his sons Stephen, Sylvanus, Eli, Samuel and David and to his grandson Darius, all at that time being residents of Harwinton. (Harwinton Land Records, 6:38, 73, 74 and 483) His will names his wife Mindwell and his son Eli, Jr. to be executors. Bequests were made to his wife, his eldest son Eli, his second son

Sylvanus and his other sons Stephen, Uriel, David and Samuel and to his grandson Darius. Also to his daughters; Mindwell Rossetter, eldest, Chloe Frisbie, second, Sarah Cook the third and Mary Stoddard the youngest. On 22 July 1801 Abner Wilson was appointed guardian for the two youngest children, David and Samuel. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, files 6524, 6525 and 6539)

On 23 Jan. 1821 Sylvanus Wilson of Camden, NY, Uriel Wilson of Pompey, NY and Darius Wilson of Harwinton quit-claimed to David Wilson of Harwinton all of their interest in "three parcels of land in Harwinton, with buildings thereon, which our honored mother and grandmother owned the use of for as long as she lived, which fell to her from the estate of our honored father, Eli Wilson, late of Harwinton, deceased, and grandfather to said Darius, it being all of the land which belongs to us from the estate of our mother and grandmother, Mindwell Wilson, now deceased." (Harwinton Land Records, 9:177)

> NOTE: Vital Records of Harwinton, Connecticut, Vol. 1, 1738-1921, found in the Harwinton Town Hall, is a genealogical record of local families which includes events that occurred both prior to and subsequent to residence in Harwinton. Inasmuch as it lacks the authenticity of an official record we refer to it as Compilation of Harwinton Families, hereinafter "CHF".

R05-107 Col. ABNER WILSON (John, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Harwinton, CT (VR) on 5 July 1743, third of the seven children of Capt. John Abigail (Stephens) Wilson. He was last noted when he sold land at Harwinton in 1805.

He married at Harwinton (VR) on 5 Apr. 1764 DORCAS CATLIN who was born there 19 May 1747, daughter of Dea. David and Dorcas (Brace) Catlin.

His first acquisition of land came shortly after his marriage when, for the customary love, good-will and affection, his father conveyed to him a 25 acre homestead. (Harwinton Land Records 1:128) Abner soon became an active speculator in Harwinton real estate, we find his name, both alone and jointly with his brother Eli, occurring in over 70 transactions. Between the years 1802 and 1805 he gradually liquidated his holdings, apparently in preparation for a move to the west.

His military record, first in 1776 as lieutenant under his uncle Capt. Amos (R04-111), then in 1777 as ensign under Capt. Aaron Foote, later in the spring of 1780 as lieutenant under Capt. Gershom Hewitt and finally, in 1781 as captain of his own company, is all documented in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848. His commission as colonel, which he resigned in October 1788 came after the close of the war.

Abner is listed in the 1790 census of Harwinton heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, four males under 16 years and five females. He served in Harwinton as selectman and for eight years starting in 1787 he represented the town in the General Assembly at Hartford. During his first term he had the somewhat dubious distinction of voting against ratification of the constitution of the United States.

R05-110 DANIEL STEPHENS WILSON (John, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Harwinton, CT (VR) 2 Jan. 1757, sixth of the seven children of Capt. John and Abigail (Stephens) Wilson. His death at Richland, Gull Prairie Co., (now Kalamazoo Co.) Michigan Territory on 25 May 1834 ae. 77 years is noted in the Harwinton church records.

He married at Harwinton (VR) 9 Jan. 1779 SABRA BARTHOLOMEW who was born there (VR) 19 Apr. 1759, daughter of Andrew and Sarah (Catlin) Bartholomew. This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 21 June 1780 whereby Daniel Wilson and Sabra his wife sold land in Harwinton "that was of our honored father, Andrew Bartholomew, late of Harwinton, deceased." (Harwinton Land Records 3:215) Sabra (Bartholomew) Wilson died at Harwinton (VR) on 20 Mar. 1817, ae. 58 years, buried there in South Cemetery.

On 26 Mar. 1783 John Wilson, "for love, goodwill and affection" conveyed to his son Daniel S. Wilson "one half of my dwelling house and, after my decease, the whole of my dwelling house, also twenty acres of land." (Harwinton Land Records 3:752) From time to time Daniel purchased other parcels of real estate and then starting in 1813 he gradually conveyed most of his holdings to his sons William, Andrew, Warren and Sheldon.

Daniel Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Harwinton heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 years and four females.

On 22 Aug. 1832 Daniel S. Wilson of Harwinton, aged 75 years, applied for a veteran's pension. (Revolutionary War Pension Application S14837) In his sworn deposition he stated that he enlisted in June 1776 in the company of Capt. Amos Wilson, Col. Gray's regiment, for six months service in the defense of New York City. After the death of Col. Gray the regiment was commanded by Lt. Col. Hart, the company officers being 1st Lt. Rockwell, 2nd Lt. Abner Wilson, Ens. Charles Goodwin. In the latter part of September 1777 he volunteered for service in the company of Capt. (later Col.) Abner Wilson and marched to Stillwater where he took part in the capture of Burgoyne's army, then he was discharged. The lieutenant of the company at that time was his brother Eli Wilson. He further stated that he was born at Harwinton on 2 Jan. 1757 and that he has always resided there. There is no listing of the service of a Daniel Wilson in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848. After the war Daniel S. Wilson served in the Connecticut militia, in 1786 he was commissioned ensign in the 17th regiment which was commanded by his brother, Col. Abner (R05-107) with promotions to lieutenant in 1786 and captain in 1791. We find no record of his ever using these titles of rank.

Just over a year from the time he applied for his pension in Harwinton Daniel S. Wilson made his will at Richland on 20 Nov. 1833. It was probated at Harwinton on 16 Jan. 1835. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6521) In this will he mentioned his sons Willis, Warren and Sheldon also his daughters Sabra Scovill, Ursula Barnes and Nabby Bailey. In addition he mentioned Nancy Wilson, widow of a deceased son and her sons John, Charles and Daniel.

He married at Harwinton (VR) 7 Feb. 1781 ELIZABETH DAVIS who was born there 4 Sept. 1760, daughter of Nathan and Zerviah (Smith) Davis. Elizabeth survived her husband and died at Camden on 22 Jan. 1844, ae. 83 years.

John served during the Revolutionary war from Harwinton under Capt. Seth Warner. (Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848) An additional account of his service comes from Revolutionary War Pension Applications, S17296 which relates that in Sept. 1777 he enlisted with his older brothers, Capt. Abner Wilson, Lt. Eli Wilson and Daniel S. Wilson when they marched to Stillwater where they took part in the capture of Burgoyne's army.

The 1790 census lists John Wilson, 2nd in Harwinton heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and two females.

Like his brothers John, shortly after his marriage, received a gift of 25 acres of land in Harwinton from his father. For about twenty years he continued to accumulate land selling only odd pieces at infrequent intervals. On 2 Apr. 1802 he sold to his brother Daniel S. much of his land together with his interest in the mills.

He was termed "of Camden, Oneida Co., NY" on 28 Mar. 1810 he sold his remaining land in Harwinton. (Harwinton Land Records, 8:79) Elizabeth T. Pike, on page 197 of Pioneer History of Camden, Oneida County, New York [1897], hereinafter "PIKE", says that John Wilson came to Camden at an early date and lived with his daughter, Mrs. Lyman Stedman.

John made his will at Camden on 28 Mar. 1834, he added a codicil on 11 June 1838, it was offered for probate on 3 Feb. 1840. (Oneida Surrogates Court Records, 6:226) He named therein his eldest son John who was named to be executor, his second Chester and his youngest son, Roswell S. R05-113 NOAH WILSON (Noah, John, Samuel, Robert) born 13 Sept. 1742, probably at Windsor, CT but his birth is recorded at Torrington, CT second of the eight children of Capt. Noah and Ann (Cook) Wilson. He was baptized at Windsor on 19 Sept. 1742.

He married at Torrington (VR) 24 Nov. 1764 HANNAH YOUNGS. The date for this marriage, which is after the birth of the first child, has been carefully verified. The Torrington church records note that "Hannah, wife of Noah Wilson died 19 Jan. 1800."

Noah Wilson, Jr. and his wife were admitted to the church at Torrington on 29 July 1764, their children were baptized there at frequent intervals. Just before his marriage his father deeded and mother deeded to Noah Wilson, Jr. one half of the land they received from his maternal grandfather, William Cook. (Torrington Land Records 3:4) On 10 May 1759 he was commissioned ensign in his father's company of militia. (Public Records of the Colony of Connecticut) In 1779 he served in Col. Sheldon's regiment of Connecticut militia. (Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848)

Noah Wilson, Jr. is listed in the 1790 census of Torrington heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and four females. The last reference to Noah found in the Torrington records is on 10 Apr. 1811 when he sold his one-half interest in the family sawmill. *Rev. 6-164+ x Probably HORACE, born about 1784, died at Franklin, 11 Sept. 1855.

R05-115 Capt. ABIJAH WILSON (Noah, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Torrington, CT on 18 Dec. 1746, baptized there 5 Jan. 1847, four the of the eight children of Capt. Noah and Ann (Cook) Wilson. He died at Winchester, CT on 24 Mar. 1833, ae. 86 years, buried in the family plot in Winsted Cemetery where he is surrounded by his two wives and many of his descendants.

He married first, at Torrington (VR) on 5 Oct. 1767 MARGARET BEACH who was born there 3 Sept. 1747, daughter of Capt. Abiel and Margaret (Pickett) Beach. (Orcutt, p. 664) This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 5 May 1797 whereby Zenas Wilson and Reynold Wilson, both of Winchester, sold land in Torrington which had been set-out to them "out of the estate of our honored grandfather, Capt. Abiel Beach, late of Torrington, deceased." (Torrington Land Records 7:39) Margaret (Beach) Wilson died at Winchester in 1794, ae. 47 years.

Abijah married second, at Hartland, CT on 7 Apr. 1796 HANNAH BUSHNELL who, according to George E. Bushnell in Bushnell Family Genealogy [1945], p. 110 was born at Guilford, CT on 24 Apr. 1765, daughter of Thomas and Dorothy (Douglass) Bushnell. Hannah survived her husband and died at Winchester on 16 June 1844 ae. 81 years.

His gravestone calls him a Revolutionary soldier, however there is no mention of him in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848. Rev. Orcutt on page 223 says that Abijah served as corporal in the fifth company of the 17th Connecticut regiment. After the war, when his cousin Col. Abner (R05-107) was commanding this regiment of militia Abijah was commissioned ensign in 1783, lieutenant by 1784 and finally captain in 1786. (Public Records of the State of Connecticut)

Abijah and his wife Margaret were admitted to the church in Torrington on 1 May 1768 and in 1787 they were listed as members of the Strict Congregational Society. Abijah was one of the first in New England to embrace the Methodist religion, his sister, Ann Taylor, recalled that Brother Bloodgood preached during 1787 and 1788 in the home of her brother Abijah much to the displeasure of their father. This John Bloodgood was active in Connecticut in promoting the Methodist faith before the arrival of the Rev. Jesse Lee in this country and later he was one of the organizers of the Methodist church in that state.

His neighbors apparently respected his unorthodox religious views, in 1784, again in 1787 and finally in 1788 they elected Abijah as selectman. He is listed there in the 1790 census with a household comprised of three males over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and four females.

Abijah removed from Torrington to Winchester in 1792. Boyd, on page 317 says he bought land at the crossing of the old North Country road and the old Still River turnpike where he built a house which remained in the family for several generations. The deed to this land, which extended to the Barkhamsted town line is dated 31 Aug. 1792. (Winchester Land Records 3:399) Abijah represented the town of Winchester in the Connecticut legislature in 1798 and again in 1802.

In 1798 Abijah gave his son Zenas a farm of about forty acres, it being the southeastern part of the lot on which the grantor then resided, in 1801 he gave thirty acres off his home lot to his son Abijah, Jr., in 1802 sixteen acres to his son Reynold and finally in 1824 he gave twenty acres to his youngest son, Daniel. Capt. Abijah Wilson made his will at Winchester on 2 Apr. 1825, and added a codicil on 25 Sept. 1826. He mentioned therein his wife Hannah, his sons Daniel, Zenas and Reynold, his daughters Margaret West and Amanda Wilson and his deceased children Abijah, Jr. and Orrel Bacon. Daniel, who lived with him was named to be executor along with his brother Zenas. (Norfolk District Probate Court Records, file 891)

After the death of his father Daniel gradually acquired the land devised to the others. These transactions involved Nelson Wilson of Winchester, Zenas Wilson of Concord, OH, Reynold Wilson of Fabius, NY, Harriet E. Horton, wife of Charles H. Horton of Sudbury, VT, Hiram Wilson of Winchester, Margaret West, wife of Edgar West of Chardon, OH, Parmela White, wife of Oliver White of Winchester, Amanda Munson, wife of Harry Munson of Mentor, OH, Absemena Hills, wife of Obed Hills of Fabius, and Orella Wiane, wife of Smith Waine of Connecticutville, PA. In 1844, after the death of the widow Hannah and the distribution of her dower, Daniel B. Wilson again purchased the land devised to the others. The list of grantors in 1845 is identical with the list ten years earlier except that the name of Reynold Wilson is replaced by Elvira Blanchard, wife of Silas Blanchard of Truxton, NY, Nancy Denison, wife of Henry Denison of Truxton, Jennett Porter, wife of Stephen Porter, Jr. of Fabius and Esther Denison, wife of William Denison of Fabius. (Winchester Land Records 11:536)

R05-118 WILLIAM WILSON (Noah, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Torrington, CT on 14 Sept. 1754, baptized the following day, seventh of the eight children of Capt. Noah and Ann (Cook) Wilson. He died at Torrington (VR)(GS) 19 Sept. 1786 ae. 32 years.

He married at Torrington (VR) 6 Aug. 1783 MARTHA BEACH who was born there (VR) 13 Jan. 1754, died 29 March 1835 ae. 76 years, daughter of Capt. Abel and Margaret (Pickett) Beach. Martha was a sister of the Margaret Beach who married William's older brother Abijah. She survived her husband's early death and married second at Torrington (VR) 20 Aug. 1794 as his second wife REUBEN BURR who was born there 13 Jan. 1752, died 20 Dec. 1827, son of John and Tabitha (Loomis) Burr. (Orcutt, p. 662) They had five (Burr) children born at Torrington; Urial 1795, Milo 1797, Fanny 1798, Eliza 1801 and lastly Harriet born 1803. (Charles Burr Todd, The Burr Family [1902] p. 247) Her grandson, James Beach, son of Lurandus and Harriet (Burr) Beach married Caroline (R07-273).

Like his brother Abijah, William's service in 1775, 1777 and 1780 in the 5th company of the Seventeenth Connecticut regiment under their uncle, Capt. Amos (R04-111) is given by Orcutt, pp. 223 and 227 but is not found in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848.

William Wilson died intestate, administration on his estate was granted on 18 Dec. 1786 to his widow Martha and to his brother Abijah. Distribution of the assets was made on 18 Aug. 1794 to William Wilson, only son and to Huldah Wilson, only daughter, both minors and to the widow Martha Wilson who received a 2/5th part of the dwelling house which the deceased owned in common with his father, Capt. Noah Wilson. Two days following this distribution Martha married her second husband, it is interesting to speculate how they shared this dwelling with a stern old character like her first father-in-law. On 11 Aug. 1794 Amos Wilson of Torrington was appointed guardian for Huldah Wilson, a minor about eleven years old and William Wilson, a minor about nine years old, children of William Wilson, later of Torrington, deceased. On 16 Dec. 1799 this guardianship was transferred to Reuben Burr and his wife Martha Burr. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, files 6584 and 6542)

A conveyance dated 23 Mar. 1811 confirms relationships within this family. On that date Augustus Munson and Huldah Munson his wife quitclaimed to William Wilson and Russell C. Abernathy, both of Torrington, land which was formerly owned by their grandfather, Noah Wilson, deceased, also land set to said Huldah in the distribution of the estate of her deceased father, William Wilson and land from said William's estate that was set to Martha Wilson, now Martha Burr, widow of said William. (Torrington Land Records, 8:231)

R05-120 JOSEPH WILSON (Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Winchester, CT about 1738 believed to be a son of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson of Windsor, CT, his ancestry has not been proven. He died, according to the Wintonbury, CT church records on 28 Sept. 1801 ae. 64 years.

He married first, at Hartford, CT (VR) 21 Aug. 1766 VIOLET (R05-103) who was born there circa 1738, daughter of Stebbin and Violet (Taylor) Wilson.

Joseph left a widow, ABIAH (-----) who the church records show died at Wintonbury on 19 Apr. 1813 ae. 70 years.

The 1790 census of Windsor lists Joseph Wilson heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, two males under 16 and four females.

If all families were similar to this it would be impossible to trace ancestral lines. There is no record of a birth or baptism for Joseph or for any of his children, there is no gravestone to mark the last resting place of him or his wives, we have found no Bible record for this family, there is no record of his second marriage and we can not establish who was the mother of his children. Joseph owned land in Windsor, a deed dated 18 Feb. 1803 describes land bounded in part by land owned by the heirs of Joseph Wilson but there is no record of a conveyance to show how he acquired this land or when his heirs disposed of the parcel. (Windsor Land Records, 22:27)

The following are believed to be children of Joseph Wilson.

This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 17 Oct. 1804 whereby Eli Hoskins and Martha his wife, Joseph Brown and Jemima his wife, all of Windsor and Joab Wilson and Wealthy Ann his wife, both of Simsbury, quitclaimed to "our brother Roswell Clark" of Windsor a parcel of land in Wintonbury Parish "which land fell to us by our father, Dea. 6-181 iii. HORACE, born about 1774. He died at Wintonbury 5 Nov. 1837 ae. 63 years. Aside from this notice of his death in the Wintonbury church records we have found absolutely no record of this man.

6-191 v. SUSAN, baptized 3 Aug. 1777. She married LEVI FILLEY. He was probably the one of that name born 4 Apr. 1778, son of Jonathan and Sarah (Butler) FIlley but possibly he was a son of Moses Filley of Wintonbury.

6-192+ vi. JOHN, baptized 16 Sept. 1781.

R05-123 Sgt. MOSES WILSON (Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 11 Sept. 1748, fourth of the eight children of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson. He died at Windsor (VR) 20 May 1837, ae. 89 years, buried in Palisado Cemetery where his gravestone says he died 2 May 1837 ae. 88 years.

He married first at Windsor on 2 Feb. 1774 HULDAH ALLYN, possibly the Huldah born at Suffield, CT (VR) 14 May 1756, daughter of Ebenezer and Miraim (-----) Allen. She died at Windsor 4 May 1816, ae. 58 years, and is buried there with her husband.

His second wife was WEALTHY ANN BARNES of Windsor who he married (VR) on 5 Feb. 1824. She was received into full communion by the First Church in Windsor on 3 Mar. 1832 and was listed as a widowed member of that church on 12 June 1839.

Moses Wilson had service from Windsor during the Revolutionary war serving at Boston from January to March 1776 with Capt. Piror's company of Col. Wolcott's regiment. On 23 Mar. 1831 Moses Wilson of Windsor applied for a veteran's pension. In his sworn deposition he stated that he marched to Roxbury, MA in 1775 and was there for six months; that in 1776 he was drafted into the militia and went to New York for three months under Capt. Nathaniel Hayden of Maj. Roger Newberry's regiment; that in 1778 he enlisted as sergeant under Capt. James Hooker of Windsor to guard the Continental stores located in that town and that after serving two years he was discharged. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications No. S177792) After the war the Connecticut Assembly paid him for furnishing wood to the guard on the United States stores in Windsor during the winter of 1780-1.

According to Commemorative Biographical Record, Hartford County, Connecticut [1901] page 632, Moses was a short, thick-set man, a farmer by occupation, who also manufactured bricks at his farm located near the green, across the river from Windsor center. He died at Windsor 16 Feb. 1825 ae. 72 years, the obit of Lt. Abiel Wilson, an officer in the Revolutionary War was published in the 1 Mar. 1825 issue of the Hartford Times.

A noteworthy gravestone in the old cemetery at Bloomfield, CT marks the remains of "Anne Cadwell, daughter of Matthew and Elizabeth Cadwell and intended wife of Abiel Wilson, died 15 Dec. 1778 ae. 26 years."

Abiel Wilson of Wintonbury married first, in the Congregational Church located in what is now West Hartford, CT on 26 Oct. 1783 HANNAH CADWELL who was baptized at West Hartford on 26 Oct. 1760, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Porter) Cadwell. This relationship is verified by a conveyance dated 4 Feb. 1793 whereby Abiel and Hannah Wilson, both of Windsor, conveyed land in Hartford "belonging to said Hannah for her part and share in the estate of Thomas Cadwell, late of Hartford, deceased, the said Thomas being the father of the said Hannah." (Hartford Land Records, 19:416) Hannah died, apparently from the effects of childbirth, at Windsor on 12 Apr. 1799 ae. 38 years.

His second marriage was at Hartford on 19 Nov. 1806 to Mrs. ANNE (OLCOTT) SPENCER who was born at Hartford in January 1769, daughter of Joseph and Elizabeth (Marsh) Olcott and widow of Benjamin Spencer. (Nathaniel Goodwin, Descendants of Thomas Olcott [1874] p. 95) On 20 Jan. 1807 Abiel and Ann Wilson quitclaimed all right and title to the real estate in Hartford late the property of Benjamin Spencer, deceased, which the grantors have by the dowry of said Ann, she being the late wife of said Spencer. (Hartford Land Records, 25:246) On 27 Sept. 1828 Anne Wilson, widow, late of Windsor but residing in Brighton, Monroe Co., NY quitclaimed to Elihu Roberts of Windsor one-half acre of land there with the building thereon standing it being the same place that the said Wilson formerly resided. She later returned to Connecticut, had several small land transactions in Windsor and died at Hartford in September 1832.

Abiel had Revolutionary war service from Windsor. In 1775 the town voted to abate his taxes because of this service. He applied for a veteran's pension in 1819 at which time he stated in a sworn deposition that he enlisted on 10 June 1775 in the company headed by Capt. Elihu Humphrey in Col. Jedidiah Humphrey's regiment; that he also served in the Connecticut troops under General Waterbury. (Revolutionary War Pension Application S35739) These claims are verified in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848.

Abiel Wilson was closely associated with the family of Dea. John Clark of Windsor whose daughter Wealthy Ann had married Abiel's brother Joab. On 17 July 1780 Abiel sold land in Simsbury by reason of a power of attorney granted by John Clark of Stockbridge, MA to "my trusty friend and nephew, Abiel Wilson of Windsor." He signed as surety on the bond of John Clark of Wintonbury who on 21 Nov. 1784 was appointed administrator on the estate of Dea. John Clark, late of Wintonbury, deceased.

Abiel is listed in the 1790 census of Windsor heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females. He resided in the Wintonbury parish of Windsor which today is the town of Bloomfield. He died intestate leaving a small estate with no land listed in his inventory. On 1 Mar. 1825 administration was granted to the widow, Anne Wilson who posted surety by Edward Steele and George Larkum. (HPR)

R05-125 SAMUEL WILSON (Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 17 Feb. 1754, sixth of the eight children of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson. Samuel, a town pauper, died at Wintonbury, CT on 9 Nov. 1832 ae. 76 years.

He married ROSANNA (Roxy) CLARK. (Stiles, p. 795) She is probably the Rosanna Clark who was born at Simsbury, CT 14 May 1753, daughter of David and Rachel (----) Clark. The death of Rosanna Wilson on 26 Sept. 1827, ae. 63 years is recorded in the Wintonbury church.

Samuel had Revolutionary war service from Windsor only a portion of which is documented in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848. On 29 Aug. 1832 Samuel Wilson, age 76 years applied for a pension and deposed as follows: that he enlisted at Windsor in 1777 for three months under Capt. Griswold and marched to Horseneck to join the regiment of Col. Eno; that he served out his term at Horseneck, White Plains and Westchester; the he enlisted again in March 1778 to guard the public stores in Windsor; that he served his full term and was dismissed in March 1779; that he enlisted a third time in 1782 for one year under Capt. Granger with his brother Abiel as the lieutenant and served at Stamford where he was discharged at the end of the war. (Revolutionary War Pension Application S15709)

We find but little information on this man, he is not listed as heading a household in the 1790 census of Connecticut. On 8 Dec. 1804 Samuel Wilson of Windsor for $140. sold to Jasper Eaton a small parcel of land in Windsor which was bounded in part by the Simsbury town line. The proceeds from this transfer were used to pay off a mortgage of $130. placed on this lot six months earlier. On 19 Dec. 1820 Samuel and Rosanna Wilson of Windsor sold four small parcels of land in Windsor.

Children of Samuel and Roxanna (Clark) Wilson as given by Stiles.

6-213 ii. JULIA, born 1808, died at Windsor 30 June 1862 ae. 54 years. She married at Windsor 4 June 1837 WILLIAM LUCK; We find only two (Luck) children born at Windsor, Ann 1838 and Mary born 1840.

R05-127 JOAB WILSON (Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 22 Dec. 1761, youngest of the eight children of Joel and Abigail (Loomis?) Wilson. He died at Granby, CT 28 May. 1842 ae. 81 years, his obit was published in the Hartford Times on 8 June 1842.

There is no record of the marriage of Joab Wilson to WEALTHY ANN CLARK who was baptized at Wintonbury on 17 Apr. 1763, daughter of Dea. John and Keziah (-----) Clark. This relationship is proven by a deed dated 17 Oct. 1804 whereby Eli Hoskins and Martha his wife, Joseph Brown and Jemima his wife, all of Windsor and Joab Wilson and Wealthy Ann his wife, both of Simsbury, quitclaimed to Roswell Clark of Windsor a parcel of land in Windsor, Wintonbury parish, "which land fell to us by our father, Dea. John Clark, late of Windsor, deceased." (Windsor Land Records, 23:201)

Joab Wilson of Simsbury, CT, age 72 years, applied for a veterans pension on 11 Aug. 1832. In his sworn deposition he stated he was born in Windsor in 1760 (sic!); that he enlisted in March 1778 into the guard stationed at Windsor for the term of one year to guard the hospital and other stores; that he resided in Windsor at the time of his enlistment; that he enlisted at the request of his brother Abiel Wilson who then belonged to the Revolutionary army but is now deceased; that he served with Capt. James Hooker in the regiment commanded by Col. Jeremiah Wadsworth; they he removed from Windsor to the town of Simsbury where he now lives. (Revolutionary War Pension Application S11783)

He is apparently the Job Wilson listed in the 1790 census of Litchfield county heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age and two females.

Children of Joab and Wealthy Ann (Clark) Wilson.

6-214 i. WEALTHY ANN, born circa 1783. In October 1804 she married at Simsbury, ORRIN COOK.

6-215 ii. JOAB, born circa 1790. Joab Wilson, Jr. of Simsbury married at Tolland, CT in December 1811 MARY PARSONS. On 3 Sept. 1806 Joab Wilson, Jr. of Simsbury sold to Hosea Adams eight acres of land in Simsbury located on the east side of the mountain.

6-216 iii. According to the Wintonbury Church records a child of Joab Wilson died 3 Mar. 1792.

R05-130 ROGER WILSON (Amos, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Torrington, CT on 2 Aug. 1756, baptized 8 Aug. 1756, third of the seven children and eldest son of Capt. Amos and Zerviah (Grant) Wilson.

He married at Torrington (VR) on 23 Jan. 1780 HANNAH MARSHALL who was born at Windsor, CT on 8 Oct. 1759, daughter of Abner and Hannah (Marshall) Marshall. This relationship is established by a conveyance on 11 May 1802 whereby Hannah Wilson, wife of Roger Wilson quitclaimed to Abner Marshall "part of a piece of land in Torrington that was set out to said Hannah in the distribution of the estate of our late father, Mr. Abner Marshall, deceased." (Torrington Land Records, 6:149)

Roger is said by Orcutt to have been drafted at Torrington for service in the Revolutionary was but we find no mention of such service in Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848.

Shortly after Roger's marriage his father, for the customary "love, goodwill and affection" deeded to him fifty acres of land in Torrington. He soon acquired an interest in the family sawmill and with his brother Roswell was active in purchasing many parcels of land in the pine swamp. He was an active businessman in the village of Newfield. (Orcutt, p. 787)

Roger Wilson is listed in the 1790 census of Torrington heading a household comprised of two males over 16 years of age, three males under 16 years and three females. In January of 1816, apparently in preparation for a move to New York Roger and Hannah sold much of their land in Torrington together with their interest in the mill. By September of the same year, when they sold more land in Torrington, they were residing in Westmoreland, Oneida Co., NY. They were still in Westmoreland in February of 1822 when they signed the last deed for land in Torrington.

Children of Roger and Hannah (Marshall) Wilson, all births recorded at Torrington.

6-217 i. ALMIRA, born 15 Mar. 1780, died at Winchester, CT on 27 Dec. 1866 ae. 87 years. She married at Winchester on 29 Sept. 1803 Capt. STEPHEN FYLER, Jr. who was born in Windsor, CT on 6 Mar. 1780, died at Winchester 21 Apr. 1853, son of Stephen and Polly (Collins) Fyler. (Orcutt p. 696) They had four (Fyler) children born at Burke, VT; Hilaemon 1804, Sophronia Jane 1806, Albro 1808 and Mason Wilson born in 1810. (Wadsworth C. Fyler, Fyler History and Genealogy [1967] p. 65)

6-218 ii. ROLAND, born 25 Sept. 1781. He married at Torrington on (VR) 24 Oct. 1806 POLLY MOORE who was born at Torrington on 1 Nov. 1784, daughter of Simeon and Hannah (Barber) Moore. This relationship is shown by a conveyance on 21 Feb. 1807 whereby Roland Wilson and Polly Wilson his wife, each of Torrington, quitclaimed to "our honored father, Simeon Moore of Winchester, land which descended to the said Polly by heirship from her mother, Hannah Moore, deceased, the first wife of said Simeon Moore." (Winchester Land Records, 5:564) Also, on 27 Aug. 1807 Roland Wilson of Winchester was appointed guardian for his wife Polly, a minor child, heir of Simeon Moore, deceased. (Norfolk District Probate Court Records, file 515) The last record found of Roland Wilson was 24 Apr. 1807 when he sold land in Torrington which was a part of the homestead of his late grandfather, Abner Marshall, deceased. (Torrington Land Records, 8:42)

6-219 iii. HEMAN, born 24 May 1783.

6-220+ iv. NORMAN, born 19 July 1785, died 1870 at Oneida Valley, NY

They had four (Frisbie) children; Francis, Wilson, Henry T. and a daughter.

6-222 vi. LEONARD, born 23 Apr. 1791, died at Leon, Monroe Co. WI on 7 Sept. 1859. (Obits from Connecticut Newspapers at State Library, Hartford) He married, probably at Winchester LUCY FAY who was born there 1 May 1794, daughter of Thaddeus and Esther (Lucas) Fay. Again this relationship is established by a conveyance dated 30 May 1815 whereby Leonard Wilson, yeoman, of Blandford, MA and Lucy his wife sold land in Winchester which fell to Lucy through Esther Gleason, formerly the widow Fay, as heir-at-law of Thaddeus Fay, deceased. (Winchester Land Records, 7:404) They resided only a year or so in Blandford, in 1819 when they sold more of this land they were residing in Smithfield, Madison Co., NY.

6-223 vii. ROXELANY, born 29 Sept. 1792. A record in the D.A.R. files says she married ISAAC DAVIS, son of Samuel and Ruth (Holly) Davis.

He married first, at Torrington (VR) on 25 Mar. 1801 SABRA GRISWOLD who was born at Winchester, CT. on 26 Aug. 1781, daughter of Phineas and Louis (Hurlburt) Griswold. The will of Phineas Griswold made in 1813 mentions his daughter Sabra, wife of Amos Wilson. (Glen E. Griswold, The Griswold Family [1943] p. 264) Sabra (Griswold)

Wilson died at Torrington (GS) 16 Dec. 1819 ae. 38 years, she is buried there with her husband.

Amos' second wife, who he married at Torrington (VR) on 13 Dec. 1820 was a widow, ELIZABETH (DUTTON) BIRGE. Elizabeth survived her second husband and married third in May of 1839 JEREMIAH SPENCER and died 2 Mar. 1839 (sic!) ae. 62 years, buried in Torringford Cemetery.

On 31 Mar. 1830 Amos Wilson of Torrington, guardian for his minor children Wait Wilson, Martha Wilson and Mary Wilson, tenants in common with Amos Wilson who owned a undivided one-third part and Ruth Wilson, widow of Roswell Wilson who owned a one-third part which after her death was to be divided among Harmon Wilson, Harriet Thrall, Lois Wilson, Wait Wilson, Mary Wilson, Martha Birge and Experience Birge, minor daughters of the present wife of Amos Wilson, petitioned the court for permission to sell their land. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6534) This permission was granted and on 16 Aug. 1830 Harmon Wilson, his aunt, Ruth, widow of Capt. Roswell Wilson, his sister Harriet, wife of Samuel Thrall and his sister Lois G. Wilson, all of Torrington, quitclaimed to Abijah Munn land lately owned by Capt. Roswell Wilson, deceased. (Torrington Land Records, 12:142)

Amos Wilson made his will at Torrington 26 Mar. 1836. He named his wife Eliza to be sole heir and named his son Harmon to be executor. (Litchfield District Probate Court Records, file 6517)

Children of Amos and Sabra (Griswold) Wilson, as given by Orcutt on page 787, probably all born at Torrington.

6-229+ i. HARMON, born (VR) 12 Sept. 1802, died at Torrington on 27 July 1853.

6-230 ii. HARRIET, born (VR) 27 Dec. 1804. On 9 May 1822 she married at Torrington (VR) SAMUEL THRALL of Torrington.

6-231 iii. LOIS G., born circa 1808. On 9 Aug. 1832 she married at Torrington (VR) JULIUS DAILY. For reasons which are not clear her brothers appeared to exhibit an unusual degree of solicitude for their sister. On 25 Dec. 1838 Wait B. Wilson of Torrington and Julius Dailey and Lois G. Dailey, both of New Hartford, quitclaimed to Harmon Wilson, for the sole use of Lois G. Daily 29 acres of land in Torrington, being the same conveyed to said Wait B. Wilson by said Harmon Wilson in trust for said Lois. On 26 Dec. 1838 Albert Bradley of Torrington for $900. conveyed to Wait B. Wilson 45 acres of land together with four-fifths of the east half of the building standing thereon, bounded south by the Harwinton town line, said Wait B. to be accountable to Lois G. Daily for said land and for the rents and profits thereof.

They had seven (Scovill) children born at Torrington; Charles Wilson 1836, George Warren 1837, Martha Jane 1839, John Riley 1841, Frank Russell 1844, Mary Irene 1846 and finally Warren Penfield born 1852. (Charles R. Eastman, Scoville Family Records [1910] Vol. 3, p. 17)

6-234 vi. MARY, born 6 Jan. 1814, a twin with Martha, died at Torrington (GS) 21 Sept. 1885. She married at Torrington (VR) on 27 Dec. 1832 BENHAM BARBER who was born 6 June 1806, (GS) died 25 Mar. 1876, son of Issaccher and Caroline (Barker) Barber. R05-136 Dea. PHINEAS WILSON (Phineas, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 26 Aug. 1753, second of the four children of Phineas and Mary (Palmer) Wilson. Phineas died at Windsor (GS) 12 July 1808 ae. 55 years, buried in Palisado Cemetery.

He married in First Church at Windsor on 28 Dec. 1785 SUSANNA GILES who was born at Medford, MA on 28 May 1762, daughter of Edward and Hannah (Skinner) Giles. John Adams Vinton on page 166 of his Giles Memorial [1864] incorrectly attributes this marriage to a sister, Margaret Giles. Susanna survived her husband and died at Saybrook, CT on 20 Feb. 1814 (Church Records) ae. 63 years (sic!). The Windsor records note that her remains were brought to Windsor from Saybrook on 10 Jan. 1817 after having been in the ground for two years, ten months and twenty days.

Phineas Wilson of Windsor died intestate, his widow Susanna and his son Oliver were named to be administrators on 7 Nov. 1808 with surety posted by Charles Phelps and John Bolles, both of Hartford. His assets included land located in both Windsor and Barkhamsted. (HPR)

Children of Dea. Phineas and Susanna (Giles) Wilson, both born in Windsor.

6-235+ i. OLIVER, born about 1787, baptized 20 Apr. 1788, died at Montville, CT 27 May 1834.

6-236 ii. PHINEAS, born about 1788, baptized 20 Apr. 1788, died at (GS) Windsor on 18 Sept. 1795 ae. 7 years, buried with his parents.

R05-138 ELI WILSON, (Phineas, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT 23 Aug. 1757, baptized 28 Aug. 1757, youngest of the four children of Phineas and Mary (Palmer) Wilson. He died on 9 Mar. 1842, ae. 84 years, his grave in Palisado Cemetery is located between those of his two wives and near those of his parents.

He married first, at Windsor on 8 Apr. 1798 a widow, RUTH (WARD) MOORE, who was born at Somers, CT on 17 May 1747, daughter of Gamaliel and Damaris (-----) Ward and widow of Edward Moore, Jr. who died at Windsor on 5 May 1788. Eli and Ruth had no children, she died at Windsor (GS) 1 Feb. 1816 ae. 60 years. (sic!)

Stiles appears to confuse the marriage of Edward Moore, Jr. with the second marriage of his father, Dea. Edward Moore, who married at Wintonbury on 31 Jan. 1771, as his second wife, Ruth Parsons. She was the widow of Chadwell Parsons who died at Somers on 3 Feb. 1756 and widow of John Parsons who died at Windsor on 14 Mar. 1769. She survived her third husband and died at Windsor 10 Nov. 1814, ae. 87 years. The will of Dea. Edward Moore, made at Windsor in June 1788 and proven 21 Dec. 1798 clearly shows that both father and son left a widow named Ruth, leaving bequests to "Ruth, my wife" and to "Ruth, my daughter-in-law, widow of my son Edward Moore, deceased." The executor's bond reads "Eli Wilson, on the right of his wife Ruth which said Ruth, by the name of Ruth Moore, Jr. is appointed as executor." Surety was provided by Phineas Wilson.

Eli's second marriage took place at Haddam, CT on 27 Nov. 1817 when he married LYDIA STANNARD, daughter of Capt. Samuel and Elizabeth (-----) Stannard. She survived her husband and died at Windsor (VR) on 3 Nov. 1845 ae. 63 years.

Eli Wilson was probably at home with his parents in 1790, there is no one by this name listed in the census of Hartford county. His name appears frequently in the land records of Windsor in connection with various purchases, sales and mortgages. He took a prominent part in the activities of that town, in 1812 and again in 1813 he was elected to represent the town in the General Assembly at Hartford. In 1823 he was a member of the board of trustees for the Methodist Episcopal Society in Windsor.

Eli Wilson of Windsor made his will on 22 Jan. 1841. He mentioned therein his wife Lydia and his daughters Millicent and Mary. Oliver S. Gillett of Windsor was named to be executor. (HPR)

Children of Eli and Lydia (Stannard) Wilson, all born at Windsor.

6-237 i. Child, died in November 1818.

6-238 ii. MILLICENT, born (VR) 23 Nov. 1819. She died at Windsor (VR) 5 Sept. 1845 ae. 26 years, "eldest daughter of Eli and Lydia Wilson." She is buried in Palisado Cemetery.

6-239 iii. MARY, born (VR) 14 July 1822 when her father was almost 65 years of age. She was living in Kingston, Ulster Co., NY, unmarried in 1847 when she sold land previously owned by Eli Wilson, not found there in the 1850 census.

End of fifth generation.

SIXTH GENERATION

R06-106 EZEKIEL WILSON (John, Stebbin, John, John, Robert) born in Hartford county, CT on 15 July 1773 sixth of the ten children of John and Deborah (-----) Wilson. He died at Zanesville, Muskingum Co., OH in January of 1829.

He married about 1800, somewhere in New York state JERUSHA DOOLITTLE who was born at New Hartford, CT on 22 Feb. 1781, daughter of David and Tabitha (Doolittle) Doolittle. Jerusha is said to have died in the area of Blenerhasset, OH on 2 Oct. 1819.

He is said to have married second, at Zanesville a widow, ----- MORLEY.

Our only information regarding Ezekiel and his descendants comes from Mrs. Delta L. (Christ) Schlotter who in 1977 resided in Piedmont, CA. She quotes her family records; "Ezekiel Wilson, born in Hartford, CT on 15 July 1775 (1773?) or more probably 1781. He "bought his time" and went west to New York State in 1791 (or 1801) and lived in Ontario Co., near Oswego, (sic!) at the time of the birth of his son Lyman Marsh on 29 Mar. 1811. Ezekiel married Jerusha Doolittle who went to western New York with her parents, David Doolittle and Tabitha Doolittle (David's cousin) born 1781, died 22 Oct. 1819. They were married in 1800. She had a sister Delight Doolittle. Ezekiel went to Blennerhasset, OH where his wife died. Later he went to Rehoboth, OH and still later to Zanesville where he married a widow, Morley. Ezekiel died at Zanesville in January 1829."

The fact that Ezekiel named his second son after the two husbands of his oldest sister, Delight (Wilson)(Marsh) Lyman, serves to validate the relationships we have shown for this family.

Frederick was residing in Dutchess Co., NY on 1 Dec. 1815 when he and his wife Susanna, late of Simsbury, for $280.00 deeded to Lemuel Roberts of Windsor, CT land in Simsbury, on the east side of the mountain, "which I inherited from the estates of my father, Ebenezer Brown and my mother, Susanna Brown, both now deceased. (Simsbury Land Records, 28:52)

They had no children. Eunice married second, at Batavia, Genesee Co., NY on 1 May 1853 ASA DANFORTH CHALKER. (Frederick Humphreys, The Humphreys Family in America [1883] p. 599)

NOTE: An extensive record of the descendants of Eli Wilson is found starting on page 526 of volume XVIII of Family Bible Records compiled by the Connecticut State Daughters of the American Revolution and filed in the State Library, Hartford, hereinafter referenced as "CBR". There are many minor differences between the dates found in these records, the dates found on gravestones and the dates in the official town records. In most instances those from the official records have been used herein.

R06-122 SYLVANUS WILSON (Eli, John, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Harwinton, CT on 11 Nov. 1769, fourth of the eleven children of Eli and Mindwell (Scovill) Wilson. He died at Camden, Oneida Co., NY on 17 Mar. 183;3 ae. 64 years, buried with his wife in Mexico Street Cemetery.

He married at Wallingford, CT on 8 Nov. 1792 CHLOE HALL who was born there 13 Nov. 1770, daughter of Ephraim and Chloe (Moss) Hall. Chloe died at Camden on 9 Mar. 1827 ae. 56 years. (Pike, p. 93)

Sylvanus apparently has a second wife, SARAH ----- who survived him.

On 20 Sept. 1793 his father gave him 18 acres of land in Harwinton on which he resided until the spring of 1801 when he sold most of his land and removed to Camden. Pike describes the arrival of Sylvanus Wilson and his family; "no house was standing on the farm then, and they slept in their ox cart while constructing a log habitation in which to live. It is quite possible that the cart was arranged like the prairie schooners with a cover of canvas or cotton cloth on a frame, as many of the emigrant wagons of that period were so equipped. The marked trees guided them on their way from Rome to Camden; and here, on the west side of the road, the first farm below the Daniel Parke place, he built, settled and lived the remainder of his life. As the land upon which he located was unimproved, he immediately bent to the task of clearing. The first crops of grain raised by him had to be taken to Rome or Utica to be ground. As years passed by, and success followed perseverance and industry, he built a frame house more commodious and convenient, which must have been very pretentious for the times, today it remains one of the finest farm houses in town."

The will of Sylvanus Wilson, made at Camden 7 Mar. 1833 and proven 10 Apr. 1833 mentions his wife Sarah and his daughters Chloe Wadhams, Laura Johnson, Polly Wilson, Eliza Wilson and Maria Wilson. Biographical Review, Litchfield County, Connecticut [1896] on page 99 says that during his early manhood Samuel was a farmer in Harwinton and then removed to New York where he resided in Syracuse, Onondaga Co. where he was employed in the manufacture of salt. He later returned to Harwinton where he passed his declining years. He was prominent in the community and was for many years deacon in the church, the title is used on his gravestone in North Cemetery, Harwinton.

In 1805 Samuel sold to his brother Stephen his interest in the land which they had received from their father, it was probably at this time, or soon thereafter that he went to New York. He was a resident of Onondaga, Onondaga Co., NY in 1813 when his cousin Abner (R06-133), by executing a judgement against him was awarded Samuel's interest in the dower rights of his mother in the estate of her late husband, Eli Wilson. He was back in Harwinton by 1826 when he and Anna his wife quitclaimed her interest in two acres of land. Samuel was residing in Peoria, IL on 22 Apr. 1865 when he sold his land in Harwinton including the house lot and garden on which he had lately resided.

Samuel Wilson, age 67 years and his wife Anna, age 64 years, born in Connecticut are listed in the 1850 census of Harwinton. They were still there in 1860 when the census shows Lois Coe, age 25 years and Harvey Coe, age 5 years living with them. He made his will there on 4 Nov. 1862 in which he mentioned his wife Anna, his daughters Nancy Birge, Adaline Norton, Caroline Greenleaf and his son-in-law, James T. Norton who was named to be executor along with the wife Anna. (Harwinton District Probate Court Records, file 522)

Betsey survived her husband and was living in Harwinton with her son David A. for the 1850 census and with her son Charles M. for the 1860 census. Mrs. David Wilson died (GS) 6 Aug. 1860, ae. 74 years, buried in South Cemetery, Harwinton.

The first land conveyed by their father to David and his brother Daniel was on 15 July 1800 when David was only fifteen years of age. As he matured he purchased land at frequent intervals, sometimes from his brothers as they left the area, and from others. He did not buy and sell land as a speculator, rather he appears to have accumulated acreage as a form of investment, only rarely did he sell land he had acquired. The source of the funds he used for these purchases is a matter of speculation, over a period of 25 years his purchases exceeded his sales by over $10,000.00, a considerable sum in a rural community such as Harwinton was in those days. Perhaps a clue to this steady source of funds is found in a conveyance dated 25 Jan. 1822 whereby David transferred land to his brother Samuel, reserving to himself the privilege of making a dam on the stream sufficient for the use of his distillery.

David made his will at Harwinton on 29 Apr. 1844. He named his wife Betsey, his sons Charles M. and David A. also his daughters Elizabeth Ensign and Cornelia Ensign. Betsey died intestate, administration on her estate was given to her son David A. Wilson on 27 Nov. 1860 with surety posted by Charles M. Wilson. He married at Harwinton CHLOE SCOVILL who was born there (VR) 6 June 1784, daughter of Ezekiel and Rebecca

He married at Harwinton 14 Feb. 1814 PAMELA WATKINS who was born (GS) in 1792 and died at Harwinton (VR) 16 Feb. 1864.

For the traditional love, goodwill and affection Daniel S. Wilson on 29 May 1813 conveyed to his son Willis the south fifteen acres of his farm. In 1821 Willis purchased another small farm and from time to time added small tracts of land. He was made freeman on 8 Apr. 1816. The 1850 census of Harwinton shows Willis, a farmer aged 62 years and his wife Pamela, aged 58 years together with Lorraine Watkins, aged 81 years, apparently Pamela's mother, living with their son Virgil. Willis and Pamela were still living with Virgil in 1860.

We find no probate for Willis. The widow Pamela made her will at Harwinton on 13 Jan. 1864 naming her son Virgil as executor and sole heir. Surety on the executor's bond was provided by Norman A. Wilson. (Harwinton District Probate Court Records, file 521)

(Harwinton Land Records, 15:299) They had nine (Marks) children, all but one born at Harwinton; George Shaffer 1842, John Lewis 1844, Pamela Ann 1846, Caroline Amelia 1848, Lucy Ciffinetta 1850, Willis Nehemiah 1852, Andrew Sheldon 1854, Frances Emogene 1856 and finally Homer Edwin who was born in 1858.

"John Wilson came from Harwinton in 1802 and built a house at the top of the hill east of the District No. 11 schoolhouse where he was one of the earliest settlers." (Pike, p. 196) The 1850 census of Camden lists Jerusha Wilson, age 62 years, born in Connecticut and her son George, age 45 years, born in New York living with her son Ephraim and his family. 7-175+ ix. SETH D., born about 1825, died at Camden 28 Sept. 1893.

R06-150 CHESTER WILSON (John, John, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Harwinton, CT on 19 Oct. 1788, fourth of the eight children of Capt. John and Elizabeth (Davis) Wilson. The Harwinton records say that Chester died in 1808. This is incorrect, his father's will, made in 1834 mentions Chester, possibly the date in the records should apply to his brother Joseph.

His wife was named AURELIA -----.

Chester removed to Camden, Oneida Co., NY with his parents when he was in his teens. The 1850 census shows him there, age 56 years (sic!) a farmer with his wife Aurelia, age 52 years, both born in Connecticut and their children; Louisa, age 20 years, Seth, age 19 years, Andrew, age 17 years, Aurelia, age 15 years, Edwin D., age 13 years and Frederick, age 11 years.

Horace died at Franklin, Delaware Co., NY on 11 Sept. 1855, administration on his estate was granted to Abijah Bennett on 9 Dec. 1857. (Delaware Surrogates Court Records, Bk. C2, p. 103)

Horace is said to have served in the War of 1812 and to have been a brother of Clarissa (R06-163). (Boston Transcript 10 June 1939)

Horace is the only individual named Wilson to be listed as heading a household in the census of Franklin for 1820, 1830, 1840 and 1850. The 1850 census shows Horace Wilson, age 66 years, a farmer born in Connecticut. Living with him was SARAH (-----) WILSON, age 38 years, William Wilson, age 11, Amanda 9, George 6, Osborn 4 and Charlotte E. age 6/12 years, all born in New York. Because of the disparity in ages we believe that Sarah was the mother of these children and Horace was their grandfather. The older Wilson children, believed to belong to this family, were listed as living in various local households.

Presumed descendants of Horace Wilson, probably all born in Franklin.

He married, probably at Torrington MARY (Polly) (Molly) HUDSON who was born there 1 May 1770, daughter of Daniel and Mercy (Coe) Hudson. (Orcutt, p. 723) Mary died in 1843.

Zenas was commissioned ensign in the 8th company, 25th regiment of Connecticut militia on 28 May 1795. He is termed Lt. Zenas Wilson on a deed dated 15 Apr. 1802 and was Capt. Zenas Wilson in a deed dated 9 Oct. 1810. His name does not appear in the published rolls of those who served from Connecticut in the War of 1812.

Zenas resided in the Winsted parish of Winchester on a farm located on the old North Country road not far from the Barkhamsted line. In 1815 he was administrator on the estate of Grove Goodrich, late of Winchester, deceased when he sold his father a one-fourth interest in two acres of land with a dwelling house thereon which adjoined the land of Abijah Wilson and land belonging to the heirs of Abijah Wilson, Jr. In 1818 Zenas and his brother Ansyl for $1500.00 quitclaimed all their interest in a fulling mill and dye house. He was still living in Winchester on 5 Dec. 1821 when, as guardian of his niece Harriet Wilson, daughter of his deceased brother Abijah, he sold land in Winchester. He was of Fabius, Onondaga Co., NY on 24 Apr. 1824 when he sold a parcel of land in Barkhamsted. In February 1832, when he sold land from the estate of Abijah he was living in Concord, Ohio.

A tribute to his exceptional physical and mental condition came in 1845 when, at the age of 76 years, he journeyed from Ohio to Connecticut where he signed as attorney for several of his nieces and nephews in the sale of lands which had belonged to his father. This was in the days before the railroads when the only means of transportation was on foot, on horseback and by canal boat.

He married CHLOE MALLORY who was born at Winchester, CT on 16 Mar. 1781, daughter of Elisha and Esther (Chatterton) Mallory. (Boyd, p. 287) This relationship is proven by a conveyance on 12 May 1812 whereby Chloe Wilson, wife of Reynold Wilson of Barkhamsted, and others, quitclaimed to Alva Mallory of Winchester all their rights in land in Winchester which had formerly belonged to their father, Elisha Mallory, late of Winchester, deceased. (Winchester Land Records 6:453) Chloe Wilson died at Fabius on 30 Aug. 1843 ae. 62 years.

In 1807 Reynold Wilson purchased a 45 acre farm in Barkhamsted on the Winchester line, it probably adjoined the land in Winchester which his father had given to him in 1802. On 3 Sept. 1816 he sold this land and in February of 1817 removed to Fabius where he spent the reminder of his days. H. P. Smith, on page 454 of History of Cortland County, New York [1885] gives the dates for the death of Reynold and Chloe and says that they had a family of eight children of whom four were living in 1885. It continues that Reynold was prominent in Fabius having been repeatedly elected to the office of supervisor and other positions of trust.

Children of Reynold and Chloe (Mallory) Wilson as shown by Winchester Connecticut Land Records 11:536 when in 1845 Elvira, Nancy, Jennett and Esther quitclaimed their interest in the land of their grandfather, Abijah Wilson, deceased.

He married in the Wintonbury parish church on 7 Mar. 1811 CANDACE BARBER who was born there 5 June 1788, daughter of James and Esther (Allyn) Barber. Proof of her parentage is found in a deed dated 27 Nov. 1816 whereby Joseph Wilson and Candis Wilson his wife, both of Windsor conveyed one and one-half acres of land, adjoining the land of the grantees, being land distributed to said Candis out of the estate of James Barber, late of Windsor, deceased. Candace Wilson died 6 Oct. 1837 ae. 49 years. (Bloomfield Church Records)

Again we find this family closely involved with that of Roswell Clark. On 18 Feb. 1803 Joseph Wilson, Roswell Clark and Jeduthan Wilson, all of Windsor, purchased of Samuel Eggleston twelve acres of land in Wintonbury parish abutting land belonging to Roswell Clark and the heirs of Joseph Wilson, deceased. In 1807 Jeduthan and Joseph exchanged their interest in this land for other land deeded to them by Roswell Clark. A clue to Joseph's occupation comes from a deed in April 1819 whereby he quitclaimed to Orrin Eggleston a certain piece of land "being the same on which my blacksmith shop lately stood." Joseph on 17 Mar. 1832 mortgaged to his nephews Judson Clark and Roswell Clark six acres of land in Windsor abutting the grantors land and the land belonging to the heirs of Joseph Wilson, deceased. 7-224 iv. SIDNEY, born about 1825, died at Bloomfield 6 Nov. 1837 ae. 12 years.
7-225 v. JULIA, born about 1831, died 6 Oct. 1837 ae. 6 years, the same day as her mother.

R06-184 JEDUTHAN WILSON (Joseph, Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born in February 1782 (calculated) at Wintonbury parish, then a part of Windsor, but now known as Bloomfield, CT, sixth of the eight children of Joseph and Abiah (-----) Wilson. He died at Wolcott, Wayne Co., NY on 7 Feb. 1826.

He married about 1805 TRYPHENE MOORE who was born at New Hartford, CT on 13 Feb. 1781, one of the twin daughters of Abijah and Abigail (Drake) Moore. (Bohlmer Rudd, Wolcott Genealogy [1950] p. 43) Tryphene (Moore) Wilson died at Butler, Wayne Co., NY on 16 Aug. 1822.

Jeduthan married second SYLVIA ----- who survived him. She was possibly Sylvia Miller but proof is lacking.

Jeduthan jointly with his brother Joseph and his brother-in-law Roswell Clark in 1803 purchased twelve acres of land in Wintonbury adjoining the parcel owned by the heirs of Joseph Wilson, deceased. He was still in Connecticut in 1807 when the Wilson brothers exchanged their interest in this land for other land owned by Roswell Clark. He apparently went west soon afterwards because on 24 Feb. 1810 when he sold land in Windsor to his brother Joseph he was living in Lebanon, Madison Co., NY. (Windsor Land Records, 22:27, 23:230 and 24:15) On 8 Jan. 1812 Jeduthan Wilson purchased land in Butler, located close to the Wolcott line.

Jeduthan died intestate at Wolcott on 7 Feb. 1826. Administration was given to the widow, Sylvia Wilson and to Samuel Miller, both of Butler. Heirs-at-law were listed as the widow and nine children, all minors under the age of 21 years; Phebe M., Fanny L., Caroline C. Jeduthan Allen, Flora L., Henry P., Henrietta P., Lewis L. and Maria. The land which Jeduthan had purchased in 1812 was set-off to the widow on 31 Mar. 1827. On 27 Mar. 1827 Sylvia Wilson was named guardian for her daughter Maria, a minor aged 2 years on 5 Oct. 1826 while Abijah Moore of Butler was named guardian for Jeduthan Allen Wilson, age 13 years in Aug. 1826; Flora L. Wilson, age 11 years in Sept. 1826; Henry P. Wilson, age 9 years in Mar. 1827; Henrietta P. Wilson, age 9 years in Mar. 1827 and Lewis L. Wilson, age 6 years in Jan. 1827. (Wayne Surrogates Court Records, Boxes 026, 01572 and 01579)

They had five (Hooker) children; Sarah Ann 1836, Rebecca Elizabeth 1839, Helen Elizabeth 1841, Emma Cordelia 1844 and Charles Brainard born in 1847. Child of Jeduthan Wilson by his second wife, Sylvia (Miller?).

7-235 x. MARIA, born 5 Oct. 1824.

R06-186 WARREN WILSON (Joseph, Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Wintonbury, (now Bloomfield) CT circa 1787, believed to be the youngest child of Joseph Wilson, this parentage has not been proven. He died in the State Hospital at New Haven, CT on 16 July 1853 ae. 66 years, buried in City Cemetery, New Haven.

His first marriage, recorded at Wintonbury parish church on 18 Mar. 1811 was to RUTH MARSHALL daughter of Alexander and Lydia (-----) Marshall who was baptized there on 1 Nov. 1801 when her widowed mother joined the church. Ruth died at Simsbury on 6 Feb. 1831, buried in Bloomfield.

The second marriage of Warren, which is recorded at St. Andrews church in Simsbury was on 24 Sept. 1837 to ANNA VIETS a name which is not found in Genealogy of the Viets Family [1902] by Francis H. Viets. It appears she may have been a daughter of Willard L. Kingsbury of Bloomfield. On 24 Mar. 1845 Warren Wilson and Anna Wilson, both of Bloomfield quitclaimed their undivided one half interest in a dwelling house and land situated in the present town of Bloomfield but formerly in Simsbury and formerly owned by Willard L. Kingsbury, deceased, which were conveyed to said Anna by the administrator on the estate of said Willard. (Bloomfield Land Records, 2:323)

On 19 May 1813 Warren Wilson of Simsbury purchased land on the east side of the mountain located in the parish of Wintonbury. On 11 Jan. 1843 Warren Wilson of Bloomfield purchased from the estate of William L. Kingsbury ten acres of land located on the east side of the mountain in Simsbury "together with all of the old house and one undivided half of the new house thereon standing." On the same date Anna Wilson, wife of Warren, purchased at public auction from the Estate of William L. Kingsbury, one half of the dwelling house wherein the deceased last lived. This was a rather involved transaction the significance of which we have been unable to discover. The name of Warren Wilson appears frequently in the land records of Bloomfield through 1852 which is the last year we have examined. Aside from the transactions we have outlined the others were either sales of small parcels of land or mortgages placed on his remaining land, both indicative of a deterioration in his financial resources.

Children of Warren and Ruth (Marshall) Wilson, there probably were others.

7-236 i. MARY, born about 1810, buried at Bloomfield 21 Mar. 1815 ae. 5 years, "daughter of Warren and Ruth."

7-237 ii. HARRIET B., born about 1817, died at Bloomfield (GS) on 27 Mar. 1897 ae. 80 years. She married MILTON NORMAN BARNARD who was born about 1811, died (GS) 17 Mar. 1874 ae. 63 years, son of Milton and Martha (Griswold) Barnard. They had a child, Edward Bedell Barnard born in 1845. (Mrs. Charles D. Townsend, The Griswold Family [1970])

7-238 iii. CHARLOTTE K., born about 1826, died 5 Jan. 1904 ae. 78 years. She married EDWARD COLLINS BARNARD who was born about 1821 and died 14 Jan. 1908 ae. 87 years, a brother of Milton N. Barnard. Although proof regarding the parents of Charlotte is lacking the fact that she married a brother of Harriet's husband and that all four are buried in the same cemetery plot becomes conclusive.

R06-189 JOEL WILSON (Joel, Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT on 16 Mar. 1775, baptized at Wintonbury parish church on 23 Mar. 1775, one of the twin children of Joel and Grace (Loomis) Wilson. He died at Windsor on 9 Feb. 1849 ae. 73 years.

He married at Windsor on 20 June 1810 ANNIS SKINNER who was baptized at Wintonbury on 5 Nov. 1798, daughter of Isaac and Ann (Gillett) Skinner. Annis survived her husband by less than one month, she was buried at Wintonbury on 4 Mar. 1849 ae. 64 years.

There is no record of this Joel Wilson ever having owned land, his name does not appear in the Windsor, Simsbury or Bloomfield land records.

Children of Joel and Annis (Skinner) Wilson. (Stiles, p. 795)

7-239 i. ANNIS A., born 9 Aug. 1811, baptized 4 Aug. 1822, died at New Britain, CT in 1895. (CBR 7:78)

Named for his uncle who died in 1805 Orson married at Windsor (VR) on 11 Aug. 1849 RHODA H. LOOMIS who was born there 4 July 1816, died there 15 Jan. 1899 ae. 83 years, daughter of Elihu and Harriet (Phelps) Loomis. (Rev. Elias Loomis, Genealogy of the Loomis Family [1908] p. 306) Orson S. Wilson was a freeman at Windsor, leased land there in 1844 and in 1850 was listed as a teamster, age 34, with his wife Rhoda, age 30 years.

7-244 vi. OLIVE CERELIA, born 2 Feb. 1823, baptized 1 June 1823, died 22 July 1873 ae. 50 years. She married at Windsor (VR) 4 Dec. 1849 LUCIUS BULKLEY CHAPMAN, both termed of Windsor Locks. He was born at Tolland, CT on 22 Mar. 1823, son of Carlos and Amanda (Chapman) Chapman. (Donald L. Jacobus, The Bulkley Genealogy [1933] p. 774) They had five (Chapman) children born at Windsor, Helen C., Willie F., Florence, Dwight W. and Frank H.

R06-192 JOHN WILSON (John, Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT, baptized in Wintonbury parish church on 16 Sept. 1781, sixth of the nine children of Joel and Grace (Loomis) Wilson.

He married in 1802 ELIZABETH GILLETTE. Elizabeth, wife of John Wilson was admitted to the Wintonbury church on 4 Mar. 1809.

Aside from a brief mention by Stiles, on page 795 and the recorded marriages for two of his children we find but little record of this man. He is apparently the John Wilson who on 7 Dec. 1804 sold a small piece of land in Windsor to Frederick and Noah Griswold.

Children of John and Elizabeth (Gillett) Wilson, all born at Wintonbury parish, Windsor, now Bloomfield, CT.

7-245 i. ELIZABETH, born circa 1804, admitted to the church on 1 July 1821. She married at Windsor (VR) on 4 Mar. 1822 HECTOR HUBBARD.

7-247+ iii. AMMI, born 1806, died at Bloomfield 17 May 1877.

R06-197 HENRY WILSON (Harry) (Moses, Joel, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT in 1785, third of the ten children and eldest son of Sgt. Moses and Huldah (Allyn) Wilson. He died at Windsor (GS) 17 Feb. 1849 ae. 64 years, buried in Palisado Cemetery.

He married at Windsor on 5 Nov. 1809 ELEANOR LOOMIS who was born there 10 Oct. 1790, daughter of Daniel and Chloe (Morton) Loomis. (Stiles, p. 444) Eleanor survived her husband and is listed in the 1850 census of Windsor, age 60 years, living with her son Allyn Wilson, age 20 years in the household adjoining that of her son Henry Wilson. She died at Windsor (GS) 13 Oct. 1851 ae. 62 years, buried with her husband. Administration on her estate was given to Henry Stile of Windsor on 18 June 1852 with surety posted by Erastus Smith. (HPR).

Henry was listed as a freeman at Windsor on 3 Apr. 1820. His name is frequently encountered in the land records of Windsor where he was an active dealer in real estate and held many mortgages. Noteworthy transactions occurred on 29 Mar. 1833 when he conveyed a portion of his farm to his son Henry Wilson, Jr. and on 20 May 1844 when father and son sold a right-of-way across the farm to the New Haven Railroad Company with the provision that a railroad station be erected thereon.

On page 632 of Commemorative Biographical Record, Hartford County, Connecticut [1901] we read "Henry Wilson was reared as a farmer boy and received a common school education. When a young man he was employed upon the farm of Dr. Sill and while there married, in 1809, to Eleanor Loomis. they began housekeeping upon a place belonging to Dr. Sill and in 1811 they located on the farm where the son now lives, which at that time was also owned by Dr. Sill. Later the father purchased this property, to which he added from time to time as his financial resources would permit, until he had about 300 acres of land. For some years he and his eldest son Henry engaged in business as partners in farming and as brick manufacturers. He was thoroughly a self-made man and deserved a great credit for the success that he achieved in life. He weighed over 200 pounds, was quite robust and was always a hard worker. In politics he was a Democrat and took an active interest in the success of his party. During the later years of his life he suffered from rheumatism."

Henry died intestate, administration on his estate was given to his son, Henry Wilson, Jr. on 19 Mar. 1849 with David Loomis posting surety. Distribution to the heirs was made on 18 Feb. 1850 to the widow Eleanor Wilson and their sons Allyn and Henry. (HPR)

He married in the First Church at Windsor (VR) on 29 Nov. 1827 DELIA CHAPMAN who was born there 18 Mar. 1805 daughter of Rev. Frederick and Lucy (Marshall) Chapman.

This ancestry is proven by a deed on 1 Dec. 1843 whereby Frederick Chapman of Windsor, for love, goodwill and affection gave to his daughter Delia Wilson 25 acres of land. Delia died at Windsor 17 Jan. 1875 ae. 70 years, buried there with her husband.

Samuel Wilson died intestate, administration on his estate was given to the widow Delia on 31 Aug. 1836 with her surety posted by Giles Ellsworth and Henry Wilson, both of Windsor. On 4 Dec. 1843 Delia was appointed guardian for her children; Samuel Allyn Wilson, age 15 years; Delia Chapman Wilson, age 13 years and Lucy Marshall Wilson age 8 years. Acting as guardian for her children Delia, on 23 Feb. 1844 for the sum of $183.00 sold a right-of-way across their land to the New Haven Railroad. (HPR)

The widow Delia Wilson, age 45 years, is listed in the 1850 census of Windsor with her son Samuel A., age 21 years, a student and her daughters Delia C., age 19 years and Lucy M., age 15 years. In 1860 this household consisted of Delia and her daughter Lucy M.

He married in May 1817 LAURA KIMBERLY who was born at Winchester, CT (VR) 15 Apr. 1798, daughter of Jacob and Nancy (Pond) Kimberly.

In 1812 he acquired an interest in the family sawmill on the Waterbury river in Torrington where he appears to have been a tradesman rather than a farmer. In 1812 he purchased a small plot of land located near the Torrington Cotton Factory and fronting on the Goshen and Sharon turnpike and added another small plot a few years later. In February 1820 he sold much of his land in Torrington and quitclaimed to his mother-in-law, Nancy Kimberly, all interest in his dwelling house. He was residing in Vernon, Oneida Co., NY in 1823 when he sold the remainder of his land in Torrington. The 1850 census of Lenox, Madison Co., NY lists Norman Wilson, age 65 years, a farmer, with his wife Laura, age 51 years, both born in Connecticut. In 1830 his father sold Harmon one equal and undivided half of a 42 acre lot of land in Torrington. Two year later he purchased from his father another 36 acres of land and after his father's death he purchased from his step-mother, Elizabeth Wilson, her dower rights in the estate of his father which then included 47 acres of land with the buildings thereon standing. (Torrington Land Records, 12:131, 142, 183, and 374)

R06-235 Rev. OLIVER WILSON (Phineas, Phineas, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Windsor, CT about 1787, baptized there 20 Apr. 1788 older of the two sons of Dea. Phineas and Susanna (Giles) Wilson. He died at Montville, CT on 27

May 1834 ae. 46 years, interment in Chesterfield Cemetery.

He married ELIZABETH ----- who died at Montville late in 1857. On 4 Jan. 1858 Nicholas Latimer was granted administration on the estate of Elizabeth Wilson, late of Montville, deceased.

The Windsor land records show that over the years Oliver gradually liquidated the extensive land holdings amassed by his father. Land which was not readily saleable was heavily mortgaged. He borrowed so heavily in Windsor that in March 1833 his uncle, Eli Wilson, was forced to foreclose on several mortgages and loans receiving judgement from the court in the amount of $2,000.00 plus costs, however Oliver's remaining property was so heavily mortgaged that the court appointed commissioners set a value of only $963.50 on the unencumbered portion of his lands. His loss on these mortgages left Eli in a bad position insofar as cash was concerned and it was necessary for him to mortgage much of his own property to the United States Bank to obtain funds to satisfy creditors. Eli eventually paid off this loan and retained his land.

Oliver Wilson is listed in the 1810 census of Windsor heading a household comprised of five persons, in 1820 he was in New Haven, CT again with a household of five persons, by 1830 he was in Montville, this time with a household of four. H. A. Baker, in History of Montville, Connecticut [1896] says that Elder Oliver Wilson commenced his labors at the Chesterfield meeting house on 1 Apr. 1825 and served until 1832 when difficulties arose between him and the parishioners and he was dismissed.

7-275 ii. Child, possibly a daughter who married NICHOLAS LATIMER the one who handled the probates of both the mother, Elizabeth Wilson and the brother, Phineas Wilson. If Phineas owned only one-half of his mother's house it would seem that there was another child who owned the other half.

Exactly two weeks later Humphrey was appointed administrator on the estate of his mother who had died twenty years earlier. (Harwinton District Probate Court Records, files 506 and 525)

An account of his life appears on page 100 of Biographical Review, Litchfield County, Connecticut [1896]. "When a young man he came to Harwinton, and after residing upon a farm for a time he moved to Alabama where he engaged in the mercantile business with success for many years. He had a farm in Harwinton, upon which he resided during the summer, his winters being passed in the South, attending to his business there. He finally abandoned trade and returned to Harwinton where he died. His wife, in maidenhood Julia Baldwin, who was born in Harwinton, became the mother of his six children, of whom Albert G. is the only survivor. Another son served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War, first in the cavalry and later in the ordnance department."

Samuel apparently did extremely well in his Alabama operations. He inherited but little from his father who was repeatedly in financial trouble, in fact Samuel several times came to his father's assistance, yet the Harwinton records show that between 1841 and 1849 Samuel Wilson, Jr., sometimes termed of Harwinton but more often of Perry, Marion Co., AL, spent almost seventeen thousand dollars purchasing large blocks of land in Harwinton, a huge investment in rural real estate for those times.

Samuel Wilson, a farmer, and his wife Julia, both aged 45 years and born in Connecticut are listed in the 1850 census of Harwinton with their son Albert, age 10 years, born in Alabama. Living with them was Sophronia N. Barker, age 35 years, born in Connecticut.

It appears that Samuel and his oldest son decided to adhere to the Confederate cause during the Civil War. On 25 May 1861 Samuel Wilson, Jr. then residing in Anderson, Grimes Co., TX appointed James T. Norton of New York City, who was the husband of his sister Adaline, to act as his attorney and liquidate his holdings in Harwinton, pay off all his debts, and deliver a deed to his father, Samuel Wilson, for "my homestead lot on which my family now resides."

After the war Samuel returned to Harwinton, he made his will there on 10 Dec. 1877 naming his son Henry to be executor and sole heir. James T. Norton signed as surety on the executors bond on 22 July 1880. (Harwinton District Probate Court Records, file 523)

He married before 1820 ROXYLANA BENEDICT who was born in Massachusetts about 1800, daughter of Thomas Benedict. (Henry M. Benedict, Benedicts in America [1870] p. 92)

Ansyl had service from Connecticut during the War of 1812. On 15 Mar. 1855 Ansyl Wilson, age 61 years, a resident of Concord, Lake Co., OH, in his application for bounty land (Wt. 10897-40-50) certified that he had served as private in Capt. He first appears in the Winchester land records on 8 Apr. 1816 when his father conveyed to him fifteen acres in the east tier of lots. Boyd on page 515 says that about 1816 Ansyl erected a clothiers works in Winsted. On 18 Mar. 1818 Zenas Wilson and Ansyl Wilson, both of Winchester, for $1500.00 mortgaged (?) a certain building containing a fulling mill and dye house together with all tools belonging thereto and all right and title to the land and water used to carry the said clothiers works. Boyd says that Ansyl remained in Winchester until about 1830 but we find no evidence of his residing there after 27 May 1818 when he sold his land to his father.

He married at Winchester on 10 May 1820 WEALTHY COE, who was born there on 1 Mar. 1799, daughter of Jonathan and Charlotte (Spencer) Coe. (Boyd p. 53) Wealthy died at the home of her sister-in-law, Harriet E. (Wilson) Horton in Sudbury, VT on 2 Feb. 1845, she is buried with her husband in Winsted. (J. Gardiner Bartlett, Robert Coe, Puritan [1911] p. 244) Wealthy's parentage is verified by a deed on 1 Sept. 1821 whereby Jonathan Coe, Jr. of Winchester, for love, goodwill and affection conveyed a house and three acres of land in to his daughter, Wealthy Wilson, wife of Nelson Wilson of Winchester. (Winchester Land Records, 8:108)

Nelson married second, probably at Martinsburg, Lewis Co., NY CATHERINE -----.

Boyd page 415 says "Nelson, son of Abijah Wilson, Jr. appears on the lists 1819. After marriage he lived until 1830 on Spencer Street and thereafter while he remained in the state, on Coe Street adjoining the Colebrook line." After the death of his first wife he removed to New York. Following the initial gift of a home from his father-in-law he gradually amassed a substantial amount of land in Winchester. In 1832 he acted as trustee for the Methodist Episcopal Church in Winchester and on 10 May 1843 Nelson Wilson, Samuel W. Coe and Luman Hall, all of Winchester, invested in an enterprise to lease cows and land in Colebrook and engage in the business of making cheese. The last record of him in Winchester is on 29 Feb. 1848 when Nelson Wilson for $1,000. and love and affection conveyed to his son, George C. Wilson, ten acres of land in Winchester with the dwelling house, barn and other buildings thereon standing. (Winchester Land Records, 14:187)

In 1850 Nelson was residing in Martinsburg where the census somewhat incorrectly lists Nelson Wilson, age 48 years, born in Massachusetts and his wife Catherine, age 50 years, born in New York. Also living with him was John Holmes, age 16 years and Roxy Day, age 28 years, both born in New York. He was still in Martinsburg on 21 Nov. 1851 when he provided for the future of his sister Harriet.

Hiram A. Wilson "of Buenos Ayres" married at Hartland, CT (VR) on 12 May 1841 HANNAH H. BOSWORTH who was baptized there 9 Nov. 1821, daughter of Dr. Nathaniel and Hannah (Stanley) Bosworth.

A biography and portrait of Prof. Hiram A. Wilson, A. M. is found in Everts and Ensign's History of Saratoga County, New York [1878]. It relates how this orphan boy was reared by his brother Nelson until the age of fourteen years, he fitted himself for college and graduated in 1838 at Wesleyan University. He then sailed for Buenos Ayres as a missionary for the Methodist Episcopal Church, returning after two years in Argentina for his marriage. In 1841 he accepted the position of principal of the academy at Jonesville, Saratoga Co., NY where he remained for the next twenty years. The 1850 census of Clifton Park, Saratoga Co., NY lists Hiram A. Wilson, age 39 years, principal of Jonesville Academy, with his wife Hannah, age 40 years, both born in Connecticut and their daughter Mary S., age 6 years, born in New York. Leaving Jonesville he went to Brattleboro, VT where he was superintendent of schools for a few years before accepting the position of President of the Board of Education in Saratoga Springs where he was residing in 1878.

R07-207 JOHN A. WILSON (Daniel, Abijah, Noah, John, Samuel, Robert) born at Winchester, CT about 1831, second of the nine children of Daniel Bushnell and Adaline (Doolittle) Wilson.

We find no record of his wife. There was an ELIZABETH A. WILSON buried at Winchester on 22 Mar. 1853 ae. 22 years who was not listed there in the 1850 census. She is probably the wife of John A. Wilson although proof of his marriage has not been found.

John A. Wilson was living with his parents for the 1850 census of Winchester. The 1860 census of that town shows him living in a boarding house with his son Edgar M. Wilson, age 6 years. On 10 Nov. 1853 Lucius Palmer of Winchester quitclaimed to John Wilson a small parcel of land located on the Still River Turnpike in Winchester.

Son of John A. Wilson.

Biographical Review, Litchfield County, Connecticut [1896] on page 135 says that Rollin D. Wilson, "at the age of twenty-one years commenced work in a clock factory. He earned fair wages while there and in time was able to buy sixteen acres of land from his father. On this tract there was built a small house which had previously been used for school purposes in which he and his wife began housekeeping. He had worked in the clock factory for seven years when it was burned. Mr. Wilson then turned his attention to farming in which he has since continued having prospered from the first. He has added to his original acreage, having bought the larger part of the parental homestead and now has a valuable farm of seventy-five acres, all in a high state of culture. In 1894 he erected a commodious frame house, pleasantly located on the west bank of the Still River and here he has exercised a generous hospitality, welcoming either friend or stranger within their gates."

Wilson, age 40 years, a soap maker, his wife Austia, age 38 years and their children Sarah E. age 15 years and Warren B., age 13 years, all born in Connecticut. The 1860 census shows that William and Austia had returned to Torrington where he was employed by the Condensed Milk Company.

In 1850 he was listed as being 32 years of age with his wife Elizabeth, age 28 years and their children Charles age 7 years and Homer, age 4 years. In 1860 Elizabeth was gone, Horatio had aged 12 years and was now 44 years old, Charles was 17 and Homer was 15 years of age.

There is a possibility that Horatio never married, that the Elizabeth in the 1850 census was his sister and that Charles and Homer were children of his brother, William B. who had been left in Torrington to be raised by their grand-parents. However, we prefer to believe that William B. and his wife Austia followed the normal course and kept their family intact.

When a young man he entered into partnership with his father and together they engaged in farming and brick making until the latter's death. When the property was divided the son took the portion in the town of Windsor on which he afterwards made his home. He was a very successful farmer, and was widely and favorably known. He was a man of ordinary build. In politics he was a staunch supporter of the Democratic party. He died 17 Nov. 1852 and his wife, who was a consistent member of the Baptist Church passed away 3 June 1884."

"Like many of the farmers at that time he was also engaged in brickmaking, and in later years was very extensively engaged in that business and manufactured as many as four million bricks in one season. He made most of the brick for the large insurance buildings in Hartford. During the hard times of 1873 he met with severe losses and in 1876 retired from the business. Then for a number of years he raised considerable tobacco, but in late years he has devoted his energies to general farming almost exclusively. His farm comprises one hundred acres, and the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad passes through the place. In 1870 Mr. Wilson conceived the idea of having a station put on his premises, and canvassed that portion of the town that would be directly benefited, but found no supporters. Not discouraged, however, he and his two nephews, Samuel H. and Frederick N. Wilson, with the true Wilson characteristic of "persistency" carried the matter through by erecting a depot at their own expense called Wilson Station; they also furnished the company with three acres of land for grading purposes, and in consideration the company agreed to stop four trains daily on signal. This number has been increased from time to time until fourteen are now scheduled to stop. At this time they opened up Wilson Avenue from the main road to Wilson Station, since then Mr. Wilson has sold off a number of lots at that place making it a pleasant little suburban village."

DAVID WILSON OF ENFIELD

R01-400 DAVID WILSON. born about 1736 (calculated) died at Enfield, CT (VR) 9 May 1811 ae. 75 years.

He married at Enfield BATHSHEBA PEASE who was born there (VR) 2 Feb. 1740/1, daughter of Israel and Sarah (Booth) Pease. This relationship is proven by the will of Israel Pease made at Enfield on 7 Jan. 1771 wherein he left a bequest on one shilling each to his children; Israel Pease, Hezekiah Pease, Jesse Pease, Nathan Pease, Sarah Lord, Mindwell Terry, Alice Root and Bathsheba Wilson. (Records of the Probate Court for Hartford County, Connecticut hereinafter "HPR") Bathsheba (Pease) Wilson died at Enfield (VR) on 9 Apr. 1811 ae. 71 years.

No clues have been found regarding the origins of David Wilson. He is first noted in Enfield on 20 May 1759 when he was involved in a dispute. (Francis O. Allen, History of Enfield, Connecticut [1900]) His marriage is not recorded, neither are the births of his children, he did not have the ownership of land recorded at Enfield and his name is not found in the probate records. Much of our information regarding this family comes from a series of letters written by various members to Austin (R03-410), hereinafter termed "Austin's letters."

Henry R. Stiles, in Vol. 2 of History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut (hereinafter "STILES") on page 146 says that David Wilson, grandfather of Elizabeth (R03-421) was an officer in the Revolutionary War. We find nothing to validate this statement. The Connecticut rolls show that David Wilson served as private from 17 May to 19 Dec. 1775 in the company of Capt. Hezekiah Parsons of Enfield in the regiment of Col. Benjamin Hinman. (Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 [1889] p. 62) In 1781 the Town of Enfield started to contribute to the support of David Wilson, paying his medical bills, giving him two loads of wood and one quart of rum when lame. (Allen, Op. cit.) In those times public welfare was not freely given, it is probable that the town felt an obligation to David, possibly because of disabling wounds received while he was in the army.

The 1790 census of Enfield lists David Wilson heading a household comprised of himself, one male under 16 years of age and two females.

Children of David and Bathsheba (Pease) Wilson, probably all born at Enfield.

He married at Claremont on 7 Apr. 1786 JOANNA (Anna) ROYCE, daughter of Hezekiah and Lois (-----) Royce. Joanna survived her husband and died at Swanton, VT in 1842, buried in Swanton Hill Cemetery. (Branches & Twigs, Vol. 2 [Winter 1973] page 14]

Susan (R03-423) wrote on 9 Mar. 1828; "Uncle Asa Wilson, we don't know where he is or whether he is living or dead". (Austin's letters)

The Connecticut records document Asa's Revolutionary War service from Enfield in 1781 at West Point with Col. Canfield's regiment of militia. On 16 July 1832 Asa Wilson of Fairfield, VT, age 69 years, submitted an application for a veteran's pension deposing that he had served three months at New London, again at various places along the Connecticut coast from August 1779 to March 1780 and finally, late in 1780 he enlisted for six months service at West Point. On 7 July 1838 Joanna Wilson, widow of Asa Wilson, late of Fairfax, deceased, then residing at Swanton, VT applied for a widow's pension in which she deposed that Asa had died 1 Sept. 1837, that she had married Asa on 7 Apr. 1786 in the home of her father in Claremont, NH and that before her marriage her name was Joanna Royce. (Revolutionary War Pension Applications, No. W26037)

The 1790 census shows Asa residing in Claremont heading a household comprised of himself, his wife, one male under 16 years of age and one female. Asa and his family settled on Swanton Hill in 1798. (Lewis C. Aldrich, History of Franklin and Grand Isle Counties, Vermont [1891] p. 397) The 1800 census of Swanton shows him heading a household comprised of one male under 10 years, one male 10-16 years, one male 26-45 years, one female under 10 years, two females 10-16 years and one female 26-45 years of age. Although children born in 1797 and later stated they were born in Fairfield it is probable that at least some were actually born in Swanton.

The position of Justus in this family is established by a letter written by his niece, Susan (R03-423) on 9 Mar. 1828, when in commenting upon his death she stated, "uncle Justus was father's brother". (Austin's letters)

PHINEAS WILSON OF HARTFORD

R01-600 PHINEAS WILSON, born probably in Yorkshire, England about 1628 (calculated), died at Hartford, CT 22 May 1692 ae. 64 years. (James Savage, A Genealogical Dictionary [1860] Vol. 4, p. 587)

He married first MARY SANFORD the only daughter and heiress of Nathaniel and Susanna (-----) Sanford of Hartford. Mary died 17 Apr. 1860, soon after the baptism of her third child.

Phineas married second, about 1690 ELIZABETH (CROW) (WARREN) (SENDALL) HAYWARD who was born about 1641 (calculated) daughter of John Crow, widow of John Warren, widow of Samuel Sendall and widow of John Hayward the notary of Boston. Elizabeth survived her fourth husband and died at Hartford on either the 9th or 19 July 1727 ae. 86 years. (Savage, op. cit.)

Savage says that Phineas, a prosperous merchant, was in Hartford by 1675 having come from Dublin. It is doubtful that he was born in Ireland, there is no pattern of wealthy Irish merchants migrating to New England in the seventeenth century, in an era of intense religious passion and intolerance his children were baptized in a Protestant church and his will shows that his three sisters resided in Yorkshire.

It has been suggested that Phineas may have been related to Robert (R01-100). (Henry R. Stiles, History and Genealogies of Ancient Windsor, Connecticut, footnote Vol. 2, p. 794) There are only faint indications of family connections; Robert took as his wife the daughter of an affluent Hartford family but this was long before Phineas came to Connecticut. In 1692 Robert's son John was appointed by the court as one of the guardians for Nathaniel, a minor son of Phineas Wilson, deceased. The name Phineas was uncommon in New England during colonial times yet we find it repeated in the descendants of Robert. Lydia (Cole) Wilson, daughter-in-law of Robert married as her second husband Caleb Stanley of Hartford whose name is found associated with Phineas in the Hartford probate records. Phineas left bequests to his sisters in Hull, Yorkshire which is about fifty miles downriver from Wakefield where Thomas Nowell, "kinsman" of Robert, had close relatives.

The will of Phineas Wilson dated 6 May 1692 was proven at Hartford on 11 July 1692. He mentioned therein his wife Elizabeth, his only son Nathaniel, his son's grandfather Nathaniel Sanford and his daughters Hannah and Mary. Also mentioned were his sisters Hannah, Margaret and Jane who were living near Hull and his wife's daughter, Abigail Warren. His inventory came to 4,102 pounds. On 12 Oct. 1692 Thomas Hooker, Dea. John Wilson and Benjamin Mountford, all prominent citizens of Hartford, were appointed guardians for his son Nathaniel. (Records of the Probate Court for Hartford County, Connecticut, also Suffolk County, Massachusetts Probate Records, file 1953)

The widow Elizabeth Wilson was a shrewed businesswoman who invested heavily in mortgages and land thus adding substantially to the funds she had inherited from her several husbands. Her will, dated 5 Jan. 1724/5 was probated in both Boston and Hartford, Savage lists the legatees, the only descendants of Phineas mentioned were his daughter Mary King and Mary's daughter by her first marriage, Mary Jesse. The inventory valued her estate at 7,154 pounds.

Children of Phineas Wilson, all by his first wife Mary (Sanford).

2-601 i. HANNAH, born about 1675 "the daughter of Mrs. Wilson who this day owned the covenant" was baptized at Second Church in Hartford on 9 Apr. 1676, she died at Weathersfield, CT on 4 Dec. 1704 ae. 29 years. She married JOSEPH ROWLANDSON, Jr. who was born at Lancaster, MA on 7 Mar. 1661, died at Weathersfield 22 Jan. 1711/12, son of Rev. Joseph and Mary (White) Rowlandson. They had three (Rowlandson) children baptized at Weathersfield; Mary 1696, Phineas 1699/1700 and Wilson in 1702/3. (Henry R. Stiles, History of Ancient Weathersfield, Connecticut [1904] Vol. 2, p. 592)

2-602+ ii. NATHANIEL, born about 1678, died before 1721.

2-603 iii. MARY, born about 1680, baptized at Second Church in Hartford on 17 Apr. 1680 "the daughter of Mrs. Mary Wilson", she died at Suffield, CT 11 Sept. 1737. Mary married first DAVID JESSE a goldsmith of Boston who died in 1708, they had five (Jesse) children; David 1700, Mary 1701, Phineas 1702, Eliza

1704 and Eliza born 1706. (Savage, op. cit. Vol. 2, page 547) Mary married second, at Hartford on 2 May 1717 Capt. JOSEPH KING who was born at Suffield on 10 May 1689 and died there 6 Mar. 1756, son of James and Elizabeth (Fuller) King. They had two (King) children; Abigail in 1719 and Joseph born 1722. (Cameron H. King, The King Family of Suffield, Connecticut [1908] p. 101)

End of first generation.

SECOND GENERATION

R02-602 NATHANIEL WILSON (Phineas) born at Hartford, CT about 1678, second child and only son of Phineas and Mary (Sanford) Wilson. On 26 May 1678 Nathaniel, "the son of Mrs. Mary Wilson" was baptized in the Second Church, Hartford.

Nathaniel died before 1721.

He married in April of 1700 SUSANNA JONES who was born at New Haven, CT on 18 Aug. 1675, the fourteenth and youngest child of William Jones the Deputy-Governor of Connecticut, the eleventh child by his second wife Hannah Eaton. Hannah was a daughter of Theophilus Eaton, Governor of the New Haven Colony. "It will be seen that when the marriage occurred Nathaniel Wilson was not quite twenty-two years old, while Susannah Jones was approaching twenty-five. Within the five years following they had separated, a strange fate had overtaken Nathaniel and Susannah had given birth to three children and died." (Donald Lines Jacobus, Susannah (Jones) Wilson and Her Immediate Descendants, TAG, Vol. 14 [July 1937] p. 46 with addenda in Vol. 14 [Jan. 1938] p. 162 and a final word in Vol. 23 [Apr. 1947] p. 236) Susannah (Jones) Wilson signed her will 25 May 1705, the inventory of her estate is dated 18 June 1705. (New Haven District Probate Court Records, file 11530)

Jacobus, op. cit. terms the careers of Nathaniel Wilson and his wife Susannah Jones the strangest and most mysterious in our colonial history, the careers of both husband and wife were so extraordinary as to be almost incredible. He relates that Susannah was living in Hartford with her husband in May 1701, but at that time some controversy had arisen and a court action had been brought, apparently caused by Nathaniel's wasting or mortgaging his property. Three months later she was in New Haven where her son was born and died. Whether she had come home for the birth of her child, whether she left her husband or whether he was with her in New Haven we do not know. The record does show that a year after the birth of his child and eight months after its death Nathaniel Wilson was supposed to be dead. On 8 Sept. 1702 his brother-in-law, David Jesse of Boston appeared in court with evidence of the death but the proceedings were continued until Susannah could be found. On 11 Nov. 1702 she appeared and testified that she believed her husband was still living. The court was not convinced of this and on 7 Apr. 1703 appointed William Whiting to act as administrator, Susannah having stated that inasmuch as her husband was living she saw no reason she should assume the duties of administrix. Susannah then appealed this action to a higher court which ruled that the administration should take place.

On 16 Feb. 1707/8 Nathaniel Wilson, "supposed to be dead, now returned to Hartford, but in a decomposed and shattered condition" appeared before the court and claimed his estate. He stated that in June 1702 he was at Boston with his brothers-in-law Joseph Rowlandson of Weathersfield and David Jesse of Boston, that they got him drunk and aboard a vessel to Virginia, and that he was sold as a servant for years. Joseph Rowlandson was arrested and gave bond, David Jesse died that year and Whiting turned over to the court the funds remaining in the estate.

There followed a series of trials in which the courts attempted to determine whether the returned man was really Nathaniel Wilson or whether he was an imposter. There were decisions both ways, followed by reversals, the matter eventually reached the Connecticut legislature which one time ruled one way, then reversed itself and finally, in 1720, concluded that given the circumstances it was impossible to determine the truth.

Anyone interested in this matter will find the fully documented account by Jacobus to be most informative.

Child of Nathaniel and Susannah (Jones) Wilson.

3-601 i. PHINEAS, born at New Haven (VR) 28 Aug. 1701, "son of Nathaniel Wilson," died there (VR) 19 Jan. 1701/2

Children of Susannah (Jones) Wilson.

3-602 ii. REBECCA, born about 1704, possibly at New Haven, father's name not known. She married Capt. DAVID COOK who was born about 1701, died at Wallingford, CT (GS) 21 May 1766 ae. 65 years, son of Henry and Mary (Hall) Cook. They had eleven (Cook) children born at Wallingford: Rachel 1724, Leah 1726, David 1727, Phineas 1729, Wilson 1730, Jesse 1732, Rebecca 1734, Jedediah 1735, Benjamin 1739, Nathaniel 1740 and Ephraim born about 1747.

3-603 iii. BENJAMIN, born about 1704. On 5 Sept. 1704 Susannah Wilson of Hartford, widow, relict of Nathaniel Wilson, late of Hartford, deceased, charged CARTERET GILLIAM, mariner, with being the father of a child, the connection occurring in August 1703. Gilliam denied the charge but the court found him to be the "reputed father." (Hartford County Court Records, Vol. 6, p. 250) On 27 May 1705 Benjamin, son of Mrs. Susannah Wilson, was baptized in the First Church, Middletown, CT. On 20 Mar. 1727/8 in the same church Benjamin Gilliam married SARAH ANDRUS. They had four (Gilliam) children; Susannah 1729, Benjamin 1731, Sarah 1733 and Phebe born in 1738.

End of second generation.

ARCHIBALD WILSON OF FARMINGTON

The Second Church of Farmington was established in 1712 as the Great Swamp Parish. The name was changed in 1722 to the Kensington Parish, a designation which has remained for over two hundred and fifty years, the Kensington Church operates today in that part of Farmington which in 1785 was included in the new town of Berlin. (Emily S. Brandegee, Early History of Berlin, Connecticut [1928] p. 8)

In 1756 ARCHIBALD (R01-700) WILSON and his wife SARAH (-----) had a child baptized in this church, this is the earliest mention we have found of this couple. We find no clue to their origin, there is no record in New England of their marriage or of the baptisms of their three older children, it thus appears that at the time of this recorded baptism they were new arrivals in the region.

It is noted that soon after the close of the Revolutionary War at least three of the children of Archibald and Sarah removed from Connecticut to the town of Whitestown in what is now Oneida county, New York a move which was duplicated about the same time by Stebbin (R05-104). The family of Stebbin is poorly documented, this nearly simultaneous move rises the possibility that Archibald was somehow related to Stebbin.

The couple had four children baptized in the Kensington church before 1763 when they apparently moved to the Cromwell Parish of Middletown where starting in 1764 they had four more children baptized. The death of Archibald on 16 Jan. 1774 is noted in the records of this church.

Their name does not appear in either the vital records or in the land records for either Farmington or Middletown. Aside from the baptisms and the marriage of one daughter the only other records of this family in Connecticut is the military service of the older sons and in Middletown District Probate Court Records, files 3942 and 3943 which show that Archibald Wilson of Middletown died intestate, administration on his estate was given on 14 Mar. 1774 to Samuel Porter of Middletown with surety provided by John Wilson of Middletown. Distribution of the assets was made on 4 Oct. 1774 to Sarah Wilson, widow, who received her thirds, the eldest son John, who received a double portion, nothing to the oldest daughter who had received her portion before her father's decease, and equal portions to the other children Jane, Rachel, Mary, James, Huldah, Archibald and Lucy. The inventory showed this estate consisted of household and farming goods, livestock, etc. with no mention of any real estate. On 14 Mar. 1774 the widow Sarah was appointed guardian for her minor children Lucy, James, Huldah and Archibald.

MICHAEL WILSON OF SIMSBURY

R01-900 MICHAEL WILSON was born circa 1725, we have found nothing to suggest that he was related to other New England Wilsons.

The earliest record we have of this man is on 4 May 1749 when Michael Wilson of Blandford, Massachusetts for 60 pounds purchased 60 acres of land in that town. Less then two months later he sold this parcel for the same price. (Hampden Land Records, P:63, 632)

On 24 Aug. 1749 he married at Simsbury (VR) LUCY ADAMS who was born there (VR) 4 Feb. 1731/2, daughter of Gillet and Abigail (Bacon)(Lewis) Adams.

From a conveyance dated 29 Apr. 1751 we learn that for 500 pounds John purchased a home lot with buildings and orchard standing thereon located in the Scotland district of Simsbury. He sold this parcel for 700 pounds on 3 Aug. 1752. (Simsbury Land Records, 7:606, 664) On 11 Feb. 1765 Michael and Lucy sold her rights in the common and undivided lands of Simsbury. (Simsbury Land Records, 9:4) This is the last mention we have found of this couple who were under fifty years of age at the time.

SECOND GENERATION

R02-901 MICHAEL WILSON (Michael) born at Simsbury, CT (VR) on 2 Dec. 1750, first child of Michael and Lucy (Adams) Wilson. He died in the army on 22 Dec. 1775.

He married LURANNA ----- who survived him.

Micah (sic!) Wilson of Simsbury enlisted on 10 July 1755 in Capt. Elihu Humphrey's company of Col. Jedidiah Huntington's Continental regiment. Connecticut Military Records, 1775-1848 [1889] page 79 notes that he died 22 Dec. 1775.

On 5 Feb. 1776 the widow Luranna Wilson was given administration on the estate of Michael Wilson, late of Simsbury, deceased, intestate, surety was posted by Israel Negus of Simsbury. The estate was insolvent, among the creditors was John Wilson of Simsbury who had an account on the books. (Simsbury District Probate Records, file 2913)

Only known child of Michael and Luranna (-----) Wilson.

3-901 i. ROXANELLA, born circa 1768. Roxanella, daughter of Michael Wilson, Jr. of Scotland was baptized in St. Andrews Church, Simsbury on 18 Sept. 1768. Scotland was a district in Simsbury, see her grandfather's conveyances.

R02-902 JOHN WILSON (Michael) born circa 1753 at Simsbury, CT, son of Michael and Lucy (Adams) Wilson.

He married DORCAS ADAMS who was born at Simsbury about 1755, daughter of Joseph and Penelope (Roberts) Adams. This relationship is established by a conveyance dated 10 Jan. 1775 whereby Joseph Adams, Jr. "for divers good causes and respects I have for my sister, Dorcas Wilson, wife of John Wilson of Simsbury," transferred 7 acres of land adjoining the 14-3/4 acres which he sold to John Wilson on the same date, taking back a mortgage for the full purchase price. (Simsbury Land Records, 12:152, 153) Dorcas died at Phelps, Ontario Co., NY (GS) on 21 July 1817, ae. 63 years.

The 1790 census of Simsbury lists John Wilson heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years, one male under 16 years and three females. This was the only household listed in Simsbury as headed by a Wilson. John and Dorcas had land transactions recorded in Simsbury until 1812 when they sold their homestead and presumably removed to New York.

Dorcas Wilson of Phelps, widow, signed her will on 15 Mar. 1817, it was proven 14 Feb. 1818. She named therein her son John, Lucy Rockwell her only daughter then living and her grand-daughter, Alvira Rockwell. (Ontario Surrogates Court Records, Wills Book 12, p. 106)

Children of John and Dorcas (Adams) Wilson, probably all born at Simsbury.

3-902 i. MICHAEL, born circa 1776, baptized in St. Andrews Church, Simsbury on 21 Apr. 1776. No further record, it appears he died soon.

3-903 ii. LUCY, born circa 1778. She married in Wintonbury Parish Church, Windsor, CT on 10 Oct. 1808 DAVID ROCKWELL of East Windsor. She was living in 1871 when she and her daughter Alvira were mentioned in her mother's will.

3-905 iv. Daughter, born circa 1784, listed in the 1790 census, died before 1817.

R02-903 GEORGE WILSON (Michael), born at Simsbury, CT in 1757, son of Michael and Lucy (Adams) Wilson. He died at Phelps, Ontario Co., NY on 12 Aug. 1843.

We find no indication of the name of his wife. Some accounts give it as Dorcas but we believe that this is a reference to Dorcas, wife of his brother John (R02-902), she died in Phelps, Ontario Co., NY on 21 July 1817.

George had frequent conveyances with Capt. William Adams of Simsbury who resided on the adjoining farm, the last was on 1 June 1799 when George, preparing for his move to New York, sold located east of east mountain in Simsbury, 1/2 acre with dwelling house also 27 acres with barn thereon, being the same place where he then dwelt. (Simsbury Land Records, 21:89) The absence of any endorsement to this deed whereby his wife released her dower rights in the homestead indicates that she had previously deceased.

George Wilson saw much service during the Revolutionary War starting in 1776 when he enlisted for three months as a private in Capt. Samuel Robert's company in Col. Pettibone's regiment of Connecticut militia. On 27 Aug. 1832 George Wilson of Phelps, Ontario Co., NY applied for a veterans pension stating that he was then 75 years of age, that he was born in the year 1757 at Simsbury, CT and always resided in that place until 1799 when he removed to Phelps. (Revolutionary War Pension Application, S23079) His name does not appear as head of a household in the 1790 census of Connecticut.

On 1 Aug. 1843, less than two weeks before his death, George signed a will in which he named his daughters Nelly, Lydia and Ruth to be sole legatees after the death of his wife who was not named. When this will was presented to the court it was contested, apparently on the basis that by mentioning his wife when he had none George demonstrated that he was mentally incompetent. The heirs-at-law as listed by the court, with no indication of their actual relationship to the deceased were; Ruth Streeter, Lydia Brooks, Nelly Hildreth, Sally, wife of William Jones, Polly, wife of Wm. C. Ingersoll, Henry Wilbur, John Wilbur, Lyman Wilbur, Maria Wilbur and Eliza Wilbur, the last three being minors and Sally, wife of Martin VanDeusen of Phelps. Also Frederick Wilson, Harriet McDowell, Boughton Wilson, Michael Wilson and Jane Shorten, all believed to be residing in Ohio and Mitchell Hickey, believed to be in Michigan. (Ontario Surrogates Court Records, Box 150 and Wills Book C, page 44)

Probable children of George Wilson, all born at Simsbury.

3-906+ i. GEORGE, born about 1779, died at Phelps 21 Aug. 1838.

3-907 ii. RUTH, born circa 1781, living 1843. She married ----- STREETER.

3-909 iv. NELLY, born about 1787. She married SPENCER HILDRETH who was executor of her father's will. The 1850 census of Phelps lists Nelly Hildreth, age 63 years, born in Connecticut, living with her presumed children, Spencer Hildreth, age 43 years and George Hildreth, age 14 years.

3-910 v. SARAH (Sally), born circa 1788. She married WILLIAM JONES.

3-911 vi. MARY (Polly), born circa 1791 who married WILLIAM E. INGERSOLL.

3-912 vii. DIODA, born circa 1795, died at Phelps (GS) 3 July 1843. She married PELEG WILBUR who died (GS) 25 June 1855. They had five (Wilbur) children; Henry, John, Lyman, Maria and Eliza.

End of second generation

R03-906 GEORGE WILSON (George, Michael) born at Simsbury, CT about 1779, probably the eldest child and the only son of George Wilson. He died at Phelps, Ontario Co., NY (GS) 21 Aug. 1838 ae. 58 years.

He married ESTHER HORTON, daughter of Capt. Michael Horton. (Simsbury Soldiers in the War of the Revolution [1982] page 518) In 1879 Esther was living with her son Frederick in Ohio, age 92 years.

He married on 6 Sept. 1836 ELIZABETH HANDERSON of Orange, Cuyahoga Co., OH.

Frederick Wilson spent his early years on his father's farm in Phelps, removing to Mayfield, Cuyahoga Co., OH in 1830. His military title came from his service in the Ohio militia, initially as captain of the Mayfield company, then successively as major, lieutenant colonel, colonel and finally, in 1838 brigadier general, a position which he held for about four years before submitting his resignation. He operated a grist mill and a saw mill in Mayfield, they burned in 1840 but were soon rebuilt and continued to operate in 1879. A short biography of Gen. Frederick Wilson appears on page 470 of History of Cuyahoga County, Ohio [1879] by Crisfield Johnson, his portrait occupies the facing page.

The 1850 census of Mayfield lists Frederick Wilson, a farmer age 44 years and his wife Eliza, age 34 years, both born in New York, with their children; Myron 13, George 9, James P. 7, Mary C. 3 and Charles, age 1 year, all born in Ohio. APPENDIX

The following individuals are thought to belong to the listed families but proof of their relationship has not been found. It is possible that some of the individuals actually had the family name of Wilcox, which was common in Hartford county, and their name was incorrectly copied as Wilson in the sources cited. See NEHGS Nexus, Vol. 14, [February-March 1987] page 32.

==========

The first permanent settler of Barkhamsted, CT was James Chaugham, a Narragansett Indian who was born on Block Island. Family tradition says that he married at Weathersfield, CT a young woman named Molly Barber, they settled in that part of Barkhamsted known as Lighthouse Flat which at that time was still unbroken wilderness. (William Wallace Lee, Centennial Celebration of Barkhamsted, Connecticut [1879] p. 38)

R-001 WILLIAM WILSON, born circa 1755 married MARY ANN (Polly) CHAUGHAM, third child of James and Molly (Barber) Chaugham. This relationship is proven by a conveyance dated 20 Sept. 1786 whereby James Chaugham, for love, goodwill and affection, deeded to his daughter Mary Wilson ten acres of land in Barkhamsted. (Barkhamsted Land Records, 1:444) The Barkhamsted records show that Mrs. Chaugham died at the home of William Wilson on 6 Feb. 1818 ae. 104 years!

The origins of this William Wilson have not been established, he was possibly related to John (R05-102). William was a soldier of the Revolution and was lame, reputedly the result of a cannon shot in the Battle of Monmouth, in 1840 his widow, then 85 years of age, was listed as a pensioner. William lived near his father-in-law and reared a large family, he was a sort of local preacher, independent yet leaning to the Baptists. He was considered to be a man of fair abilities, very enthusiastic and somewhat visionary. He was held in esteem by every one as a man of worth. (Lee, op. cit.)

William was residing in Tyringham, MA on 22 Jan. 1840 when he made his will, it was probated on 2 June 1840. He mentioned therein his wife Mary Ann, his daughter Polly, wife of Joseph Elwell, his son William and his deceased daughter Esther Haskell. On 11 Aug. 1840 Harlow S. Underwood was appointed by the court as guardian of Mary Ann Wilson, relict of William Wilson, deceased, on account of her being a spendthrift who indulged in excessive drinking. (Berkshire Probate Court Records, files 6156 and 6185)

William and Mary Ann (Chaugham) Wilson had a dozen children born at Barkhamsted. (Lewis Sprague Mills, Legends of Barkhamsted Lighthouse [1961]) The births of the children were not recorded, we find only:

R-2 i. MARY (Polly), born about 1782, died shortly after 1866. She married JOSEPH ELWELL who died before his wife. Polly is the one who furnished Lee with the family information which appeared in his book.

R-3 ii. Probably NORMAN, born circa 1785. On 3 Sept. 1815 Norman and ELIZABETH (-----) WILSON were admitted to the church in Barkhamsted. It is conceivable that Elizabeth was not his wife but his sister.

R-4 iii. ESTHER, born about 1788, died before her father. She married ----- HASKELL.

R-5+ iii. WILLIAM, born about 1795, died 22 Jan. 1855.

R-012 NELSON S. WILSON, born about 1820. He is first noted in the 1850 census of Clymer, Chautauqua Co., NY, a clerk, age 30 years, born in Connecticut. He married at Waterbury, CT (VR) 17 Sept. 1854 ESTHER (MARKHAM) WILSON who was born at New Hartford, CT on 29 Apr. 1817, daughter of Samuel and Sylvia (Goodwin) Markham and widow of Charles Horton (R08-201) of Winchester, CT. Nelson, his wife and his step-daughter are listed in the 1860 census of Winchester where Esther died (GS) 31 Mar. 1881 ae. 64 years. Nelson S. is thought to have been related to Nelson Wright (R07-203).

R-013 HEZEKIAH WILSON, born circa 1765, listed in the 1790 census of Windsor, CT heading a household comprised of one male over 16 years of age, one male under 16 years and three females. He could be an uncle of Hezekiah (R07-240). He married at East Hartford, CT (VR) 27 June 1786 MEHITABLE KENDALL. Their known children;

R-14 i. RACHEL, baptized at East Hartford Congregational Church on 1 May 1787 "daughter of Mehitable Wilson."

R-017 HENRY WILSON, born in Connecticut about 1823, he is listed in the 1855 census of Camden, Oneida Co., NY, a farmer, age 32 years, who came to Camden about 1834. His age and the name of his daughter suggest he may be related to Ansyl (R07-192). His wife, JANE -----, age 24 years and their three children, all born in Camden, were also listed.

R-18 i. DANIEL, born about 1850.

R-19 ii. ROXY, born about 1852.
